THE MILESTONE

Dedication

We, the senior class of 1952, dedicate this edition of THE MILESTONE to our friend and sponsor Mrs. Mary Louise Butler. She has been with us for four long years, suffered with us in our sorrow, and cheered with us in our joys. She has constantly tried to guide us aright.

Class Will

I, Jerry Chadwick, leave my grandstand attraction in basketball to "Bird-dog" Reed.

I, Jimmy Taylor, leave my ability to make low grades to Hudonal Montgomery.

I, Dorothy Fulcher, bequeath my loud mouth to Jo Lou Brawner.

I, Faye Stubblefield, leave my ability to skip study hall to Joan Raines.

I, Betty Hodges, bequeath my ability to get to school on time to Rubye Trevathan.

I, Wray Hopper, leave one slightly used "TONI" set to Jack Dunning.

I, Janice Neagle, leave my ability to work geometry problems to Ann McCain.

I, Raymond Wade, leave my right on the phone to Codie Adams.

I, "Lard" Hicks, leave my school-girl figure to Dodie Bradberry.

I, Jacky Esch, leave my griping ability to Bobbie Brawner.

I, Joe Green, bequeath my laziness (mental and physical) to Dickie Brawner.

I, Joe Taylor, leave my thirst for knowledge to Robert Lemonds.

I, Joe Ann Phelps, will to Barbara Brawner my ability to successfully lead through the Senior year, a boy who lives in a "trance" as a result of his "romance."

I, "Argo" Fowler, will my ability to get into trouble to Nanette Edwards.

I, Jimmy Long, leave my ability to stuff my stomach in the lunch room, and then sleep through English class to Jerry Hearn.

I, Bernice Jordon, leave my ability to swing my hips to Peggy Dunn, who can well fill my place.

I, Joyce Upchurch, leave my excess weight to Sue Phelps, who needs it.

I, Thomas Morris, leave all points I haven't made in basketball to Joe Denning.

I, "Blondie" Brasfield, leave my position on the basketball team, as bench warmer, to Helen Boothe.

I, Frances Brummitt, leave my position in the lunch room to Robbie Crutchfield.

I, Joan Cravens, leave Cledis Patton in Mrs. Butler's care until he graduates.

I, Lester Bingaman, bequeath the love and admiration Mr. Raines has always shown me to Ray Lemonds.

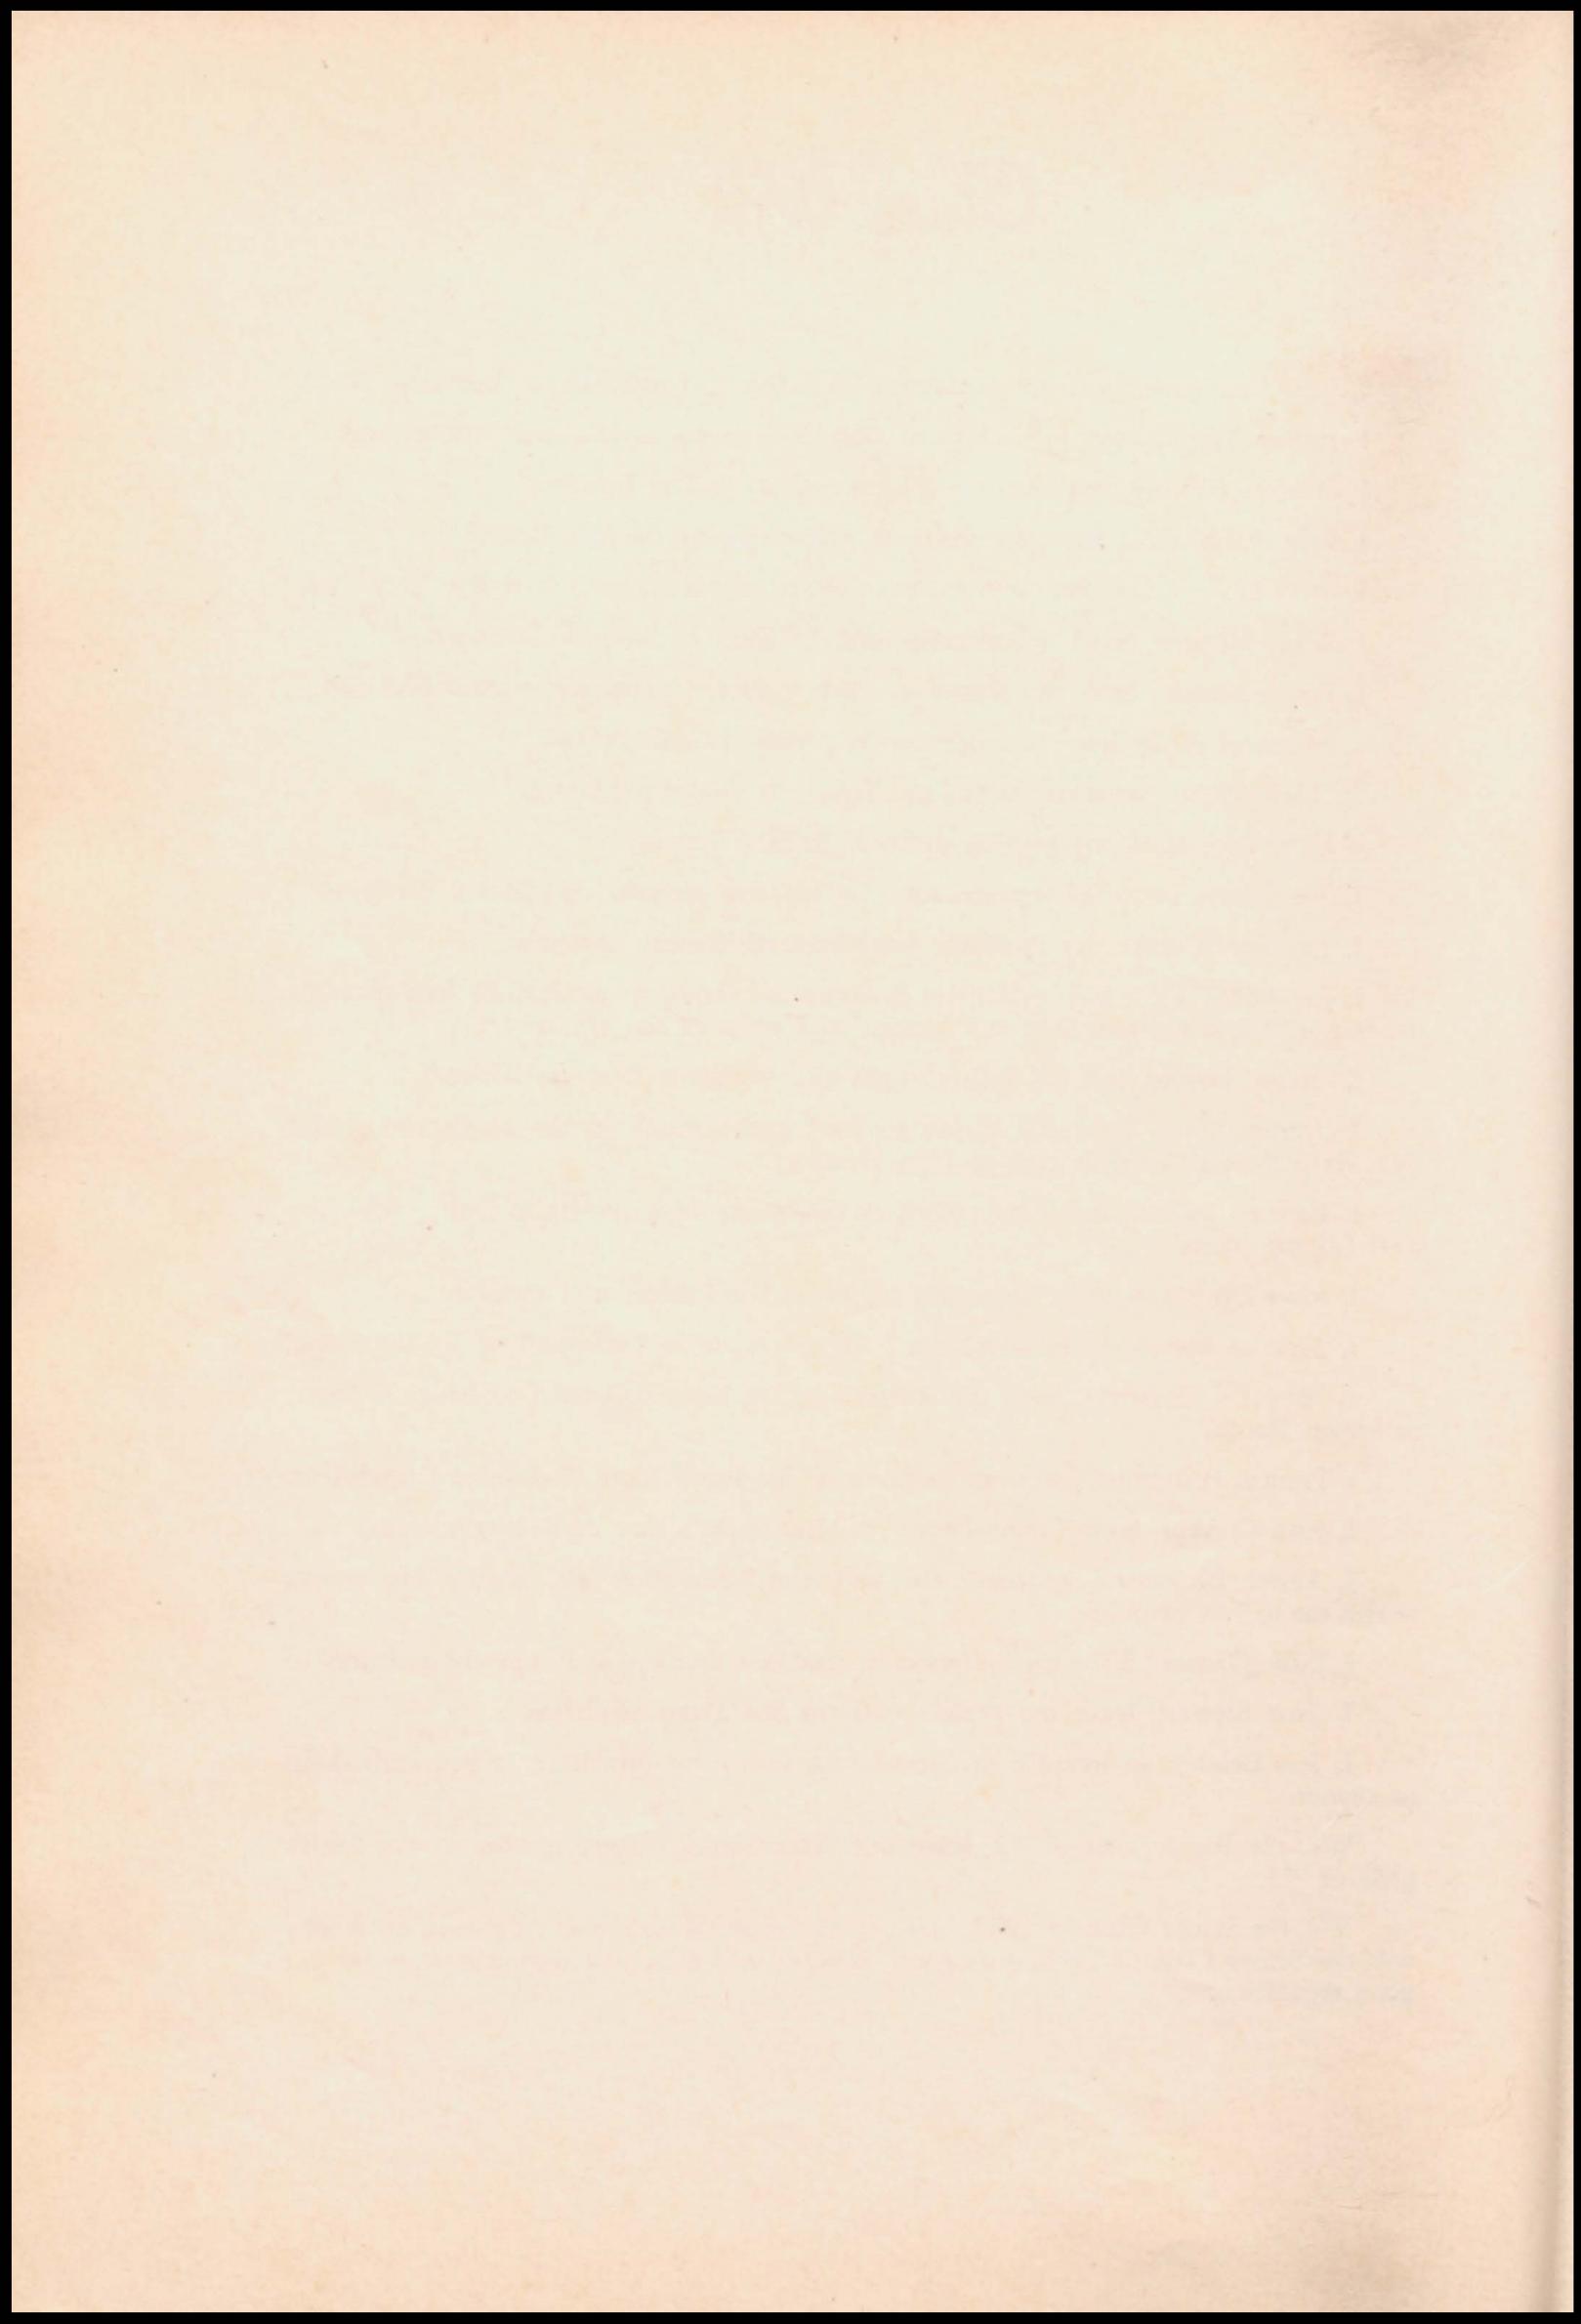

I, Billie Ozment, leave my quietness to Rushlene Dunlap, and hope she practices it.

I, Jane Stewart, leave my perfect curls to Sue Dean Williams.

I, Jess Beasley, so treasure my possessions that I am unwilling to bequeath them to anyone.

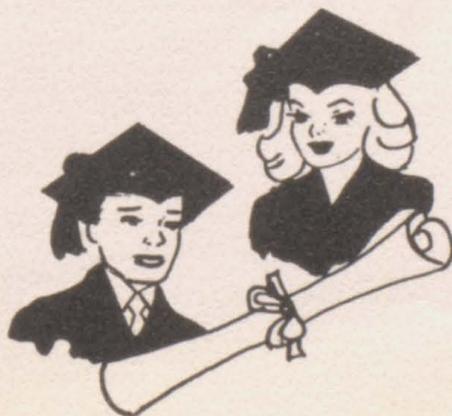

We, the Senior girls of '52, leave our "Handsome" history teacher to the Senior girls of '53.

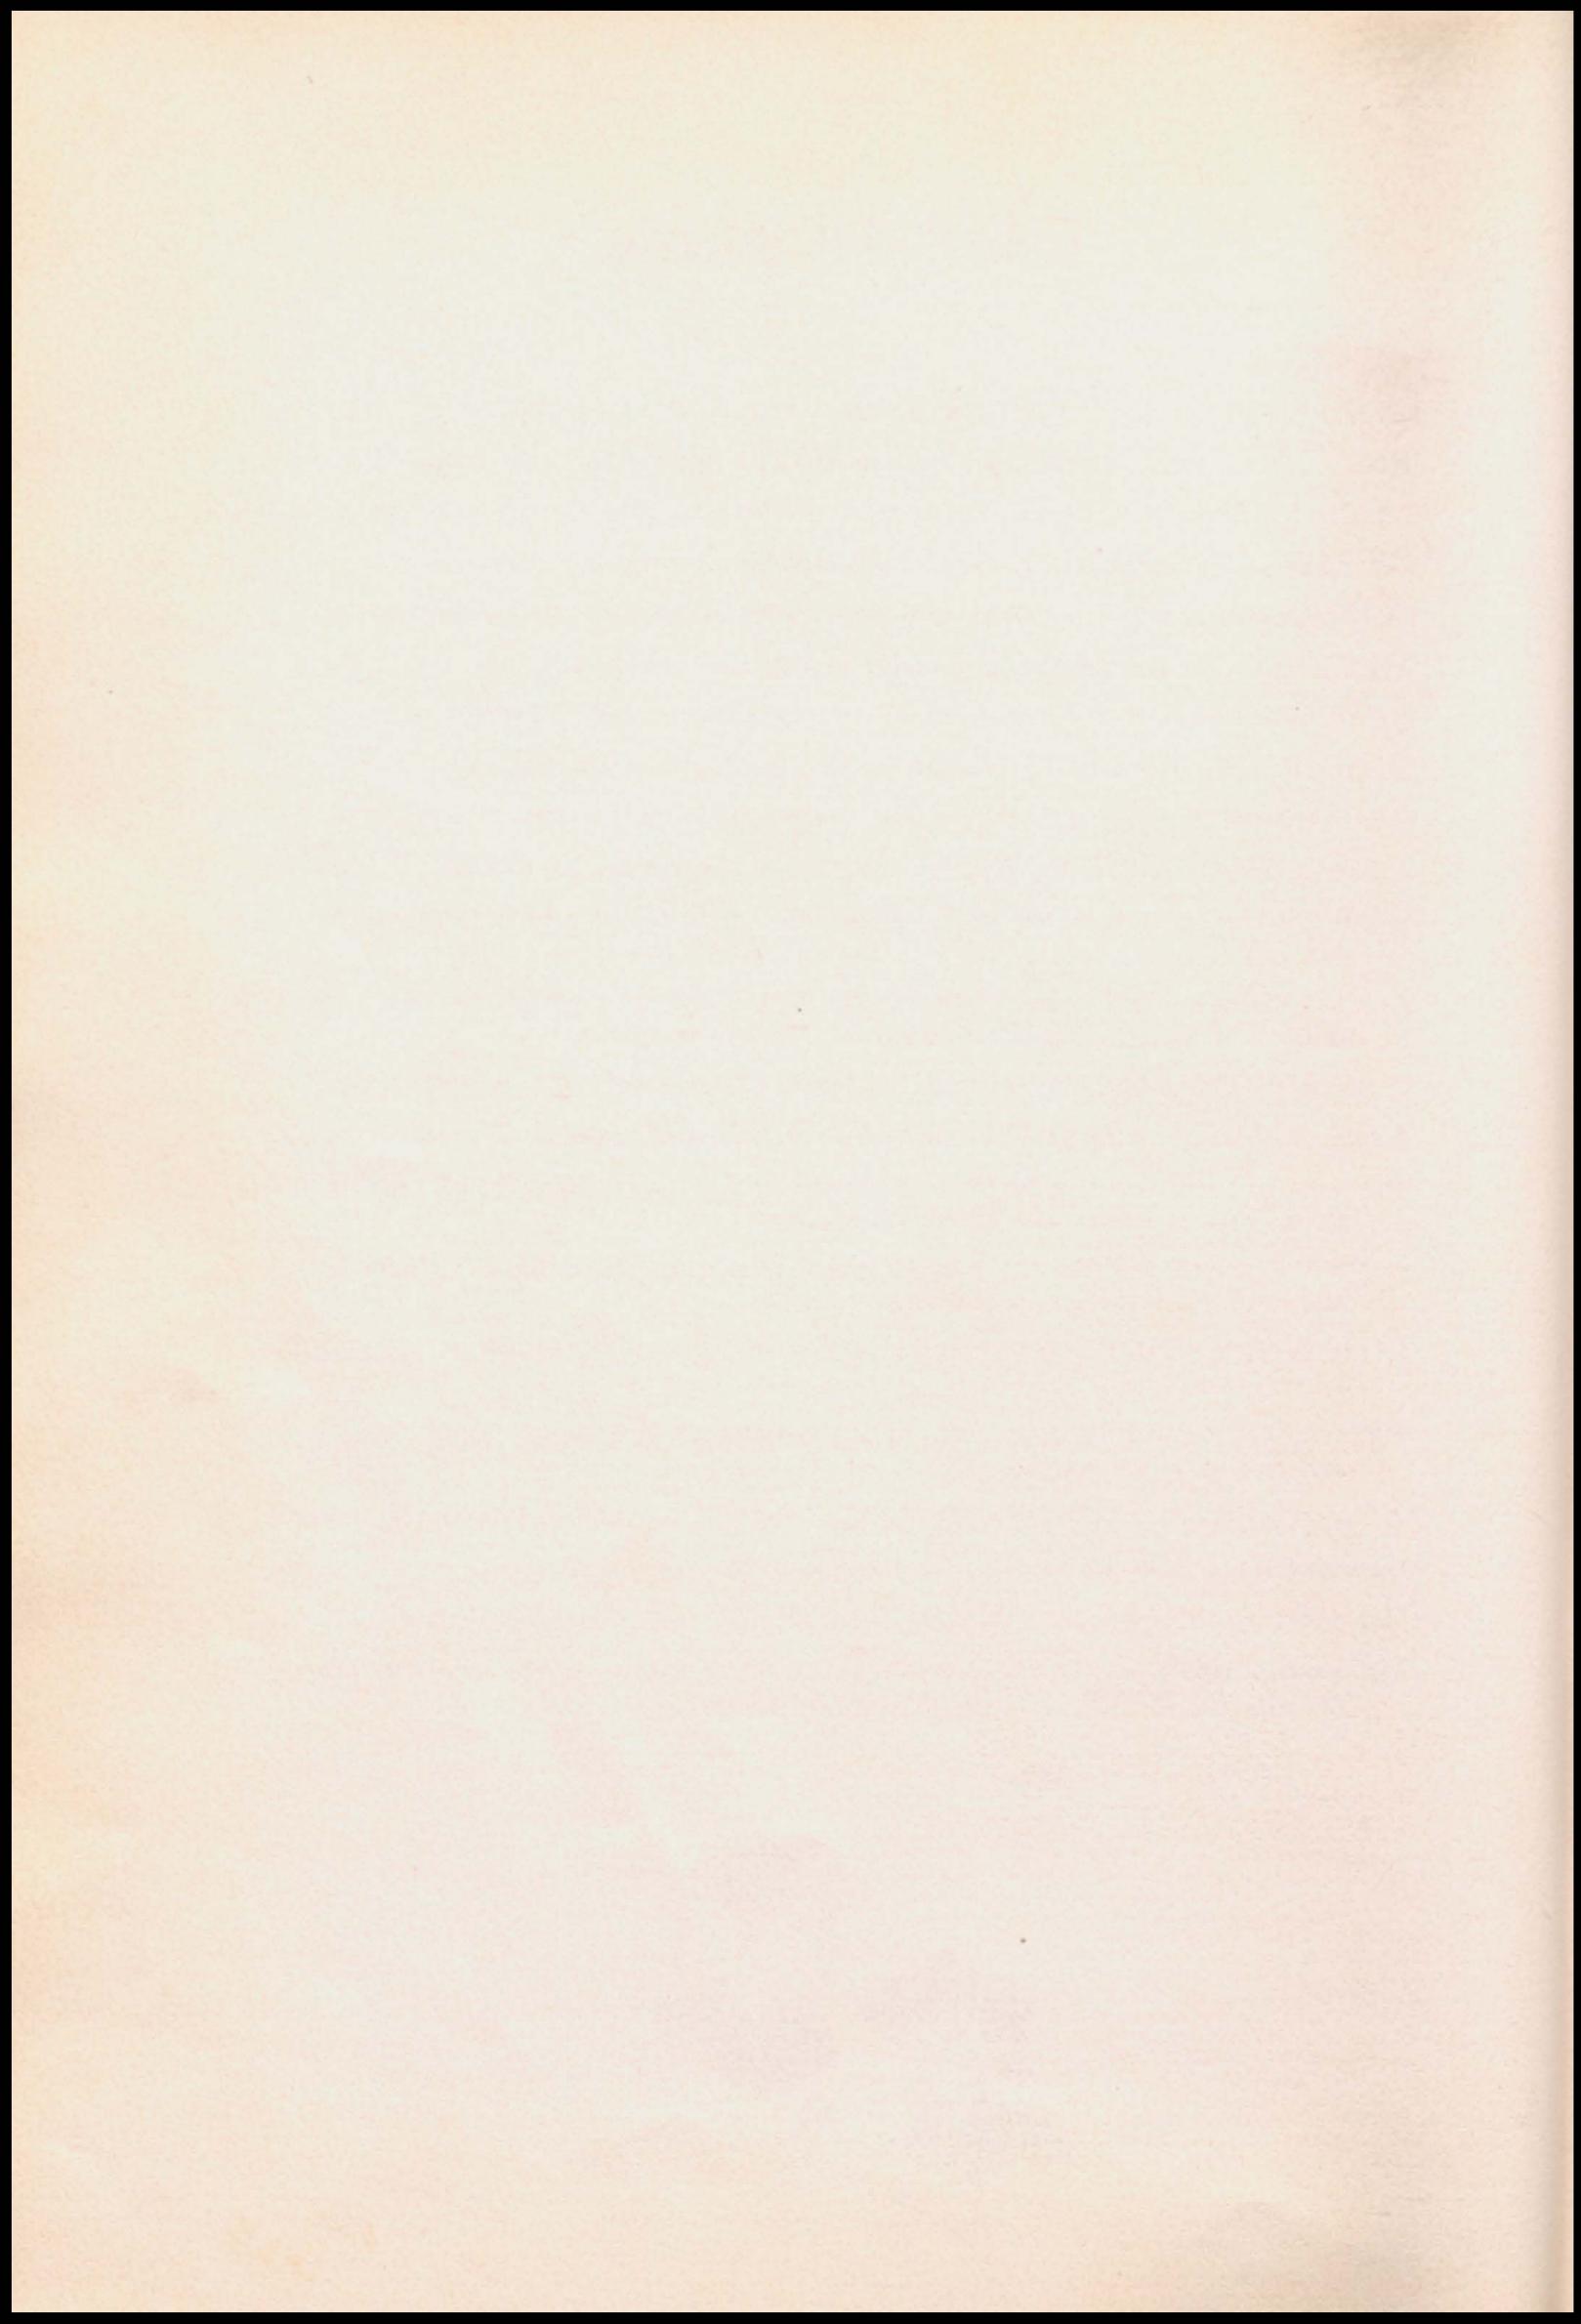

We, the Senior Class of 1952, being of sound mind and sane judgment, do hereby will the Senior Class of 1953, our "good" conduct and trust that they will carry on our good reputation.

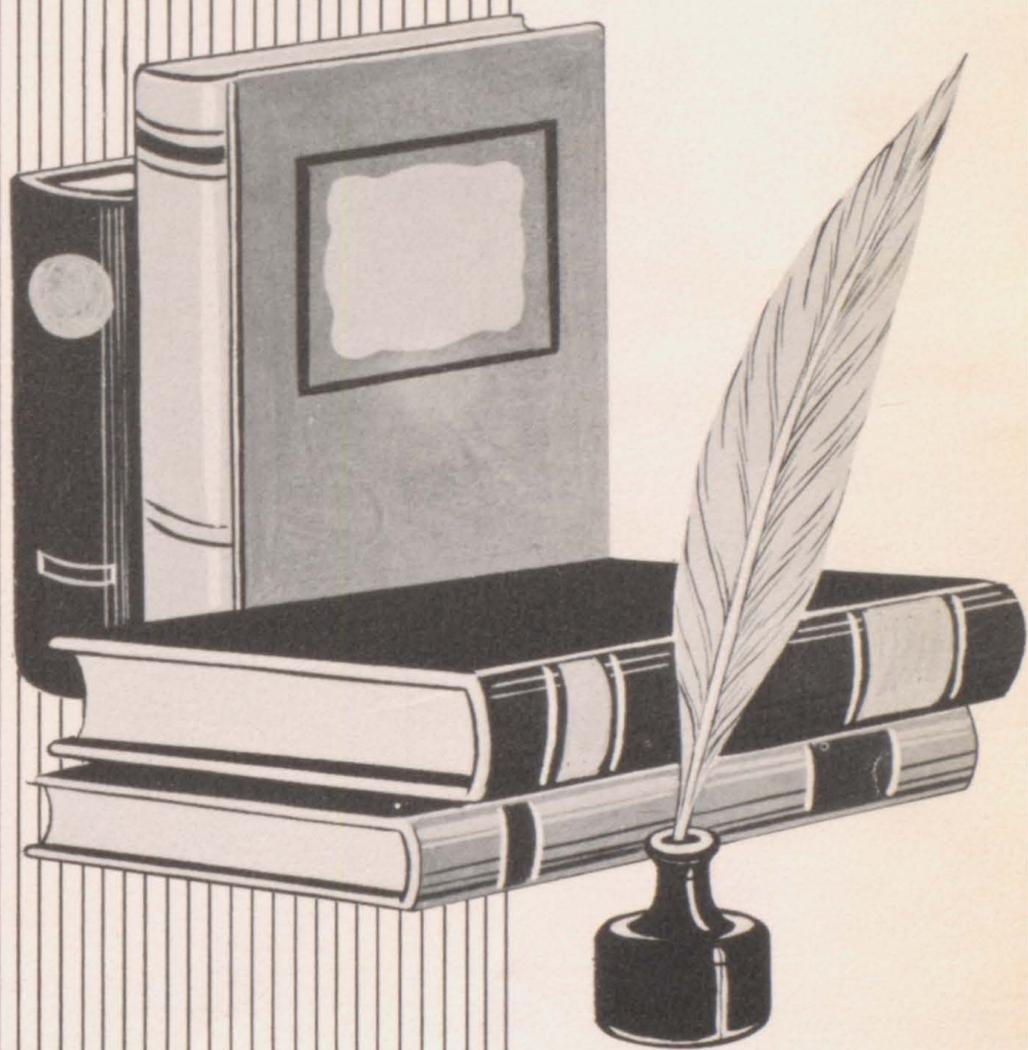

Class Prophecy

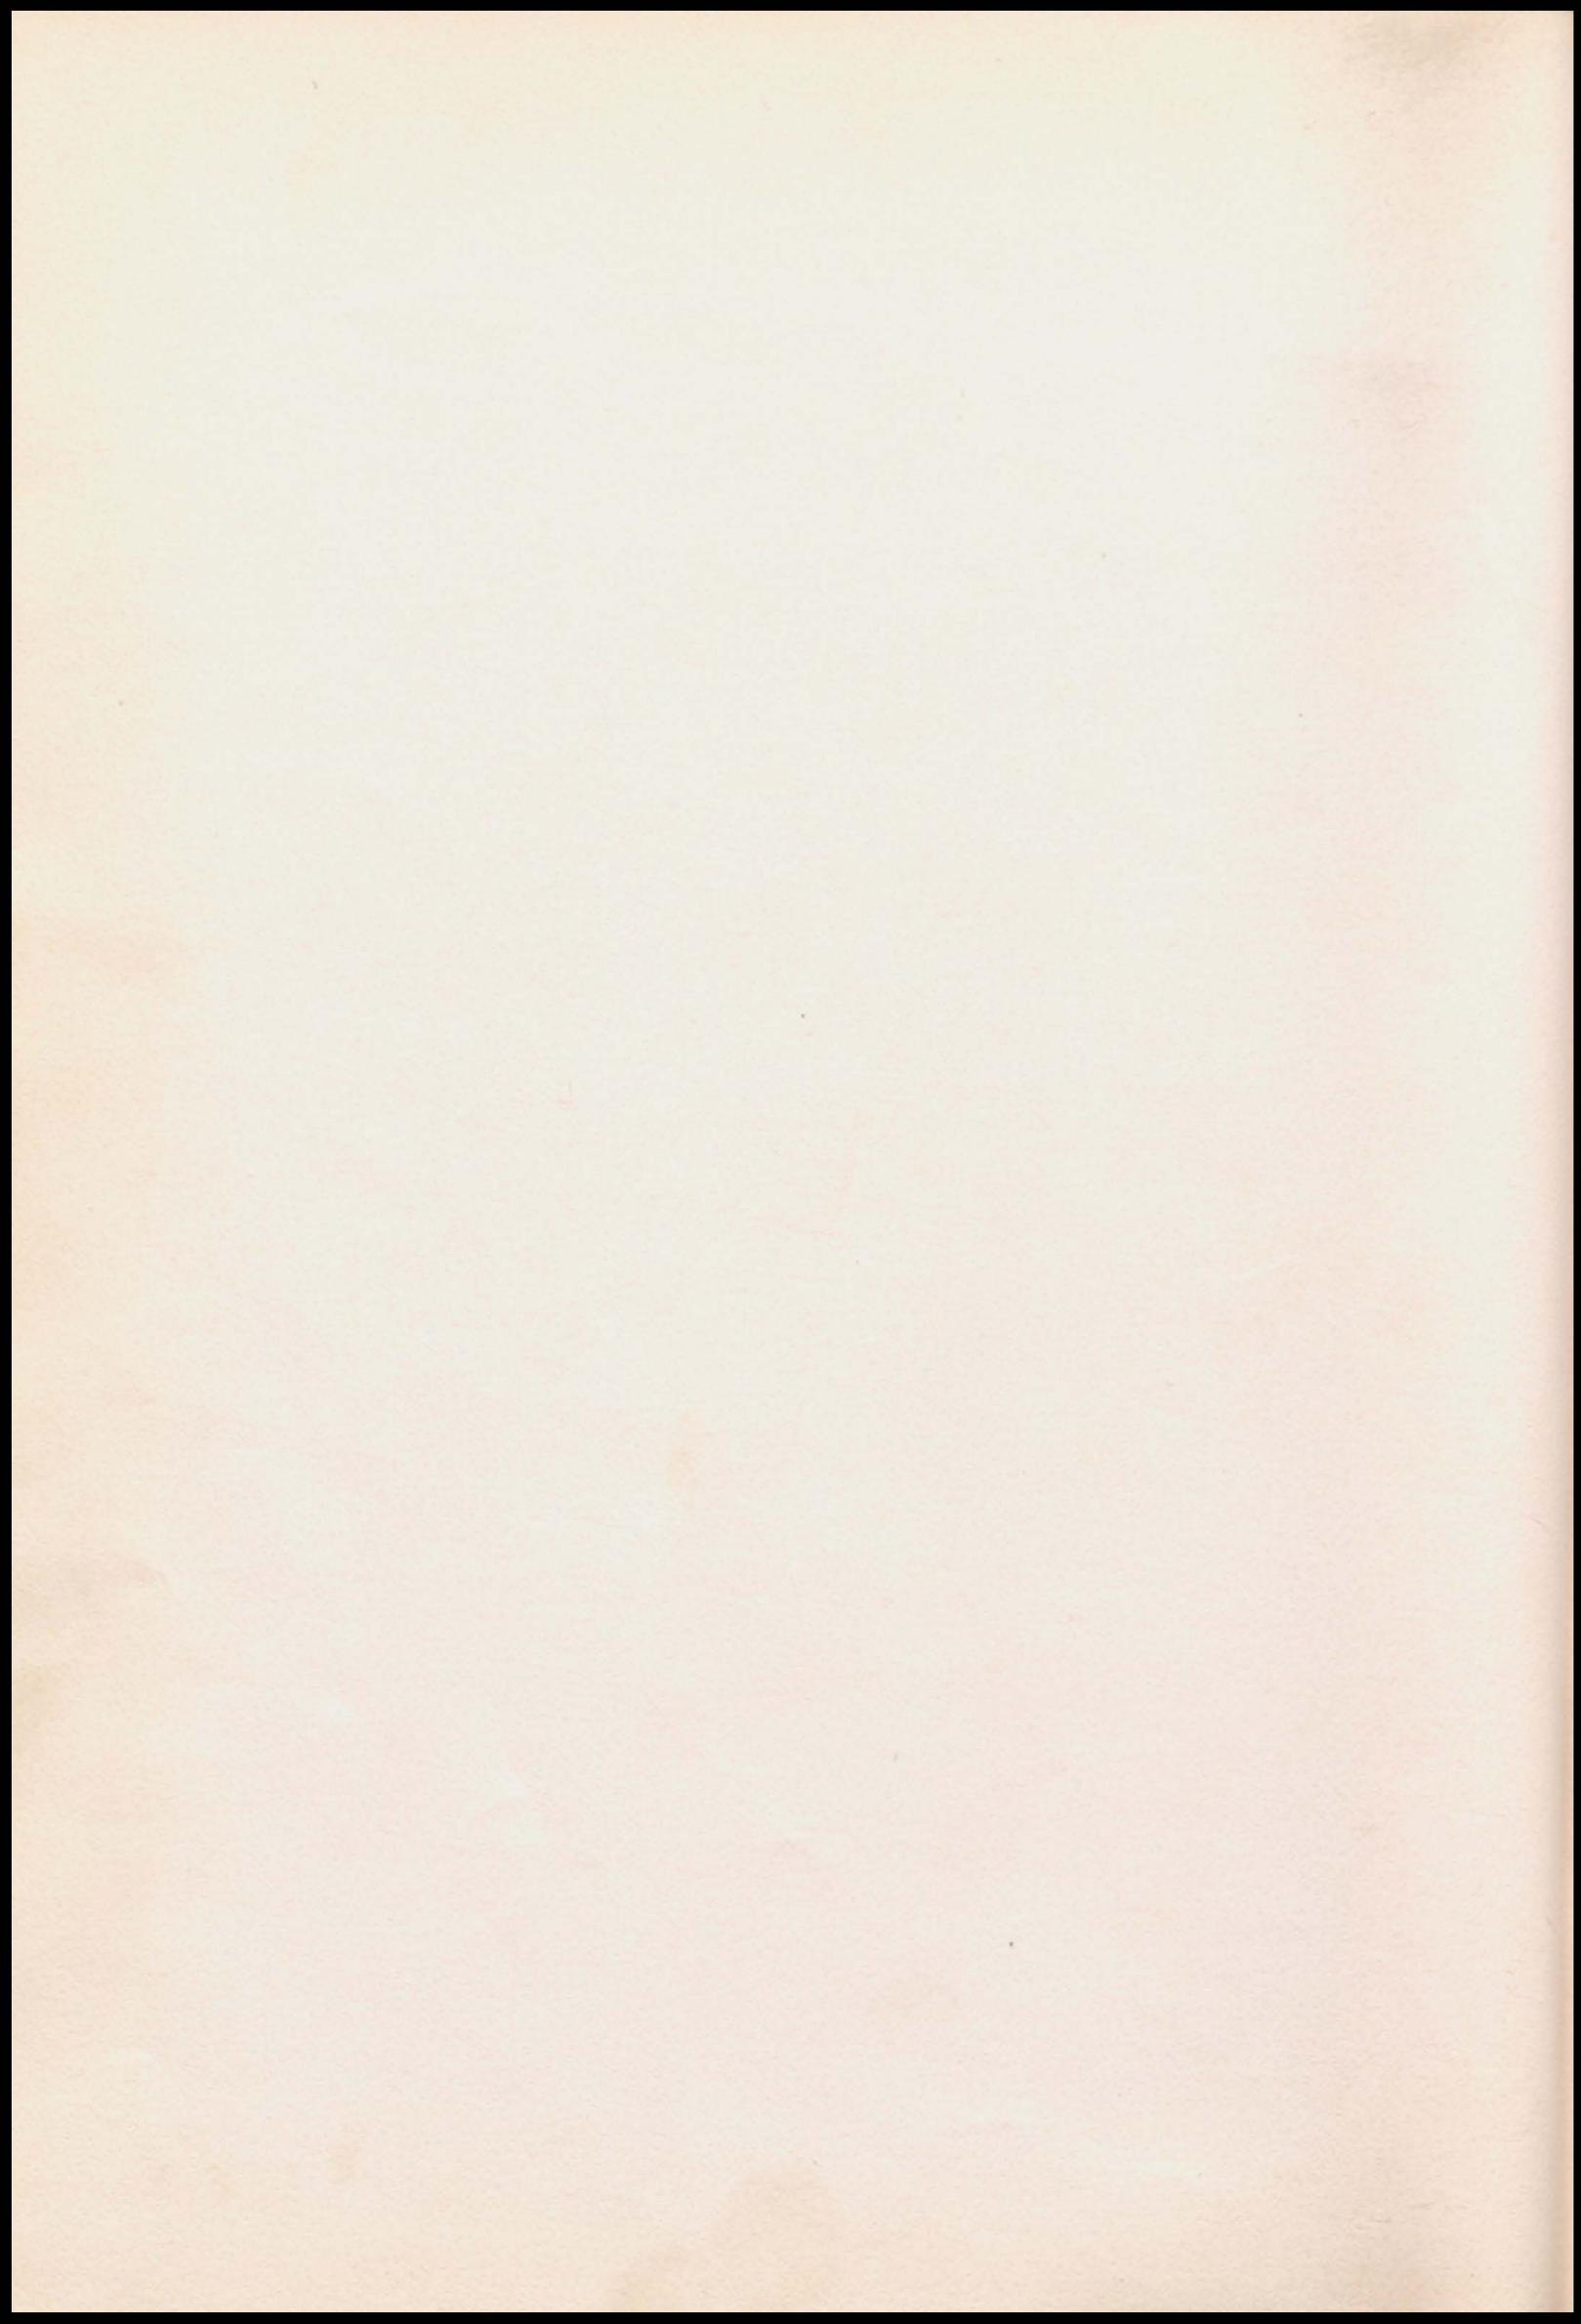

JACKY ESCH, I'm sorry to say, still sits and gripes to this good day.
JIMMY LONG still eats and naps, at his wife and kids he continually snaps.
NELDA and BERNICE still hand in hand, they love each other but have no man.
JOE ANN and JOE, no need to say, are still together in work and play.
FRANCES BRUMMITT is famous now; her poetry bought her a brand new cow.
JOYCE NELL has not reduced, to stop her eating she can't be induced.
BETTYE HODGES still tall and thin, just skin without and bones within.
CLARA RUTH, after a while, coaches a team that will beat Mrs. Wiles.
JESSIE'S mouth still big and wide, teaches "hog-calling" on the side.
A fashion designer is MELBA JOYCE, in all the new styles she has a voice.
JOAN CRAVENS is a Patton now—What's she pattin'? Three little children's heads and how.
FAYE STUBBLEFIELD and DOROTHY FULCHER a kindergarten run, where children of their former classmates come and have some fun.
T. R. MORRIS still blushing and coy, is a movie star now—Oh, you handsome boy!
A night club singer is ROOSTER MANSFIELD. When he warbles, all the girls squeal.
The voice you hear on a radio show is that of LESTER LEE. We're glad to know he always says that he's from TENNESSEE.
JANE STEWART and JANICE NEAGLE are partners in a store. Janice sells the ladies' hats, while Jane sweeps up the floor.
NORRIS HICKS still big and fat and better known as "LARD," to get out of working he still works very hard.
JOE GREEN can still be seen around the streets of town, a model farmer is he now and one of great renown.
A basketball coach is LITTLE RED. For Gleason? No, he coaches Palmersville instead.
RAYMOND WADE worked half his life, finally landed himself a wife.
You never can tell; you never do know—BILLIE SUE is dancing in a Hula show.
The lawyers HOPPER, TAYLOR & TAYLOR make money by the score. By getting divorces for JOYCE NELL so she can get married some more.

The Gleason Bulldogs began their season with a 34 to 7 loss to Greenfield. For the first half, the Bulldogs fought on even terms, but lost to a more experienced team.

For our second game, we traveled to Sharon to take on the heavyweight Eagles. The tremendous team of Sharon humbled the Bulldogs to the tune of 20 to 7.

But the green team of Gleason began to respond to the coaching of Coach Tom, and came up to the game with McKenzie determined to make a game of it. With a revamped defense and a semi-platoon system, the Bulldogs held the Rebels to a lone touchdown until the fading moments when breaks gave McKenzie two others. This was an encouraging stand, and by far the best effort of the Bulldogs to this time.

Improvement continued, and the Bulldogs were primed for the game with Ridgely. For the first time, the offense clicked, the defense stood like a stone wall, and the Bulldogs chalked up their first victory to the tune of 27 to 7. It was a cheerful crowd that met in the Cafe that night.

Then came the game with the arch rivals from Dresden. Gleason was ready, and the playing on the night of October 5 was rough and rugged. But Dresden had a couple of breakaway runners named Freeman and Mayo, and our boys just could not catch them often enough. Dresden won by the score of 26 to 14.

Then came the long trip to De-caturville. This game we have called the Dust Bowl, and we won by the slender margin of 7 to 0. Actually, the game was not nearly as close as the score indicated as we were never seriously threatened and we came close several times.

On October 19, we travelled to Trezevant, and defeated them to the tune of 27 to 6. The Bulldogs showed considerable improvement, especially in offense.

On October 26, the Bulldogs played their best game of the season against a strong and fast Dover team. We won by the score of 25 to 0, but the Dover team was good and strong, and played us a good game despite the score.

Then came our second chance with Greenfield, this one for keeps, and Greenfield kept it.
We did very little right that night, considerably under the performance the week before, and lost by the score of 25 to 13.

Our final game found us against Dresden. We pushed Dresden around pretty well, but again
there was too much Freeman.
We lost 20 to 0.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Who will ever forget the night that Hoss caught three long passes from Bill in the Ridge-Game?

And the way that Stigall went through the McKenzie line.

Watts still has a headache every time he remembers the Dover game.

Sluggo Wright lasted one play against Trezevant.

Who was outstanding as Captain taking over cold.

Bobby Brawner still had the old injury jinx.

Did you ever see anyone get down in the line like Joe Green?

Who carried his basketball wizardry to the football field.

P.T.'s terrific tackling, when he wasn't too lazy.

Winn's terrific defensive play.

Belews bloody noses.

Remember the night Hearn played the backfield?

The Beasley boys with their "Whats it on".

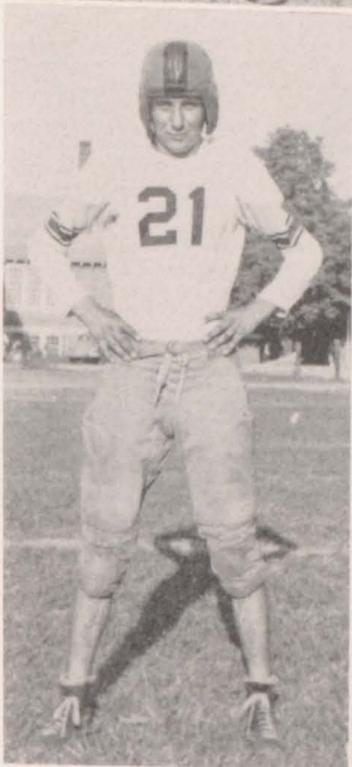

"He swugged me fust!"

It was a good season, because we had lots of fun.

The 7-8 grade teams have had a short, but good season. The girls have lost only one game and are a strong threat in the County Tournament. The starting players are Shelby Wiseman, Linda Phelps, and Patsy Perkins, as forwards; Carolyn Lampkin, Carline Brinkley, and Linda Hagler as guards.

The boys led by Stigall and Denning are rapidly getting to be a strong team.

BEST OF LUCK, KIDS.
