Dedication

To show our appreciation for these four memorable years, we dedicate this, our year-book, to you, our sponsors, Mrs. Pearl Bennett and Mr. E. L. Floyd. You both have been such considerate, helpful, and inspiring sponsors and teachers.

We thank you and we hope that in this small way we have partly repaid you for all you have contributed to our years at Gleason High School.

(Principal
J. T. MOORE)

Class Will

- I, Herald Arnold, leave my quietness to Ronnie Black.
I, Ruth Atnipp, leave my solemn disposition to Joyce Stewart.
I, Larry Arnold, leave my ability to sleep through class and get by with it to Robert Smith.
I, Lamon Boane, leave my ability to always be on time to Dolores Taylor.
I, Jerry Belew, will my talkative ways to Ricky Dunning.
I, Judy Choate, leave my flirty ways with all the boys to Barbara Morris.
I, Dan Brummitt, leave my grave intelligence to Gary Morgan.
I, Peggy Garrett, will my engraved desk in study hall to Linda Bailey.
I, Carlton Cook, leave my nickname "grey mule" to anyone who understands it.
I, Rubye Higgins, leave all my cute clothes to any girl they will fit--and I'll take yours.
I, Jerry Ellis, leave my courteous ways to Jerry Robertson.
I, Mary Ellen Jeter, leave my ability to be elected queen to Diane Bullock.
I, Dickey Hamilton, leave my ability to get into everything to anyone who has the energy to do so.
I, Jayne Lemonds, leave all my friendly ways and leadership ability to Peggy Williams.
I, Charles Harris, leave my position on the football team to anyone who can do the job well.
I, Joyce Long, leave my nickname "Boo" and my ability to get into trouble about everything to Sue Ward.
I, Terry Jones, leave my bashfulness to Paul Brundige.
I, Robbie Lowery, leave my serious ways and even disposition to Joyce Clark.
I, Don Phelps, leave my position as Football Captain to Mr. Sanders's pet.
I, Betty Maynard, leave my cheerleading outfit that I have filled so well for three years to Annette Capps.
I, Larry Robertson, leave my wit to Jerry Brawner.
I, Shirley Ross, leave my ability to do well in everything to Luan Jones.
I, Dale Trentham, leave my good looks and intelligence to Curtis Mayo.
I, Faye Runions, leave my beautiful hair and clear complexion to Mary Ann Margraves.
I, Maxine Seagraves, leave all my many troubles to any fool.
I, Sue Stewart, leave my position as forward on the basketball team to my little sister, Linda.
I, Betty Story, leave my sweet ways to Linda Elinor.
I, Sue Trevathan, leave my cuteness, silliness, and neatness to Kitty Wray.
I, Carolyn Woodruff, leave my office job, well done for many years, to Dolores Jorge.

Class Prophecy

Well, sir, it was just one of those draggy days around the Pan Am between the earth and the moon. My Beatnik friend, Charles Harris, was sleeping behind a copy of our home town paper, "The Gleason Whish-per" which is edited by Harry Pennington. And I was sitting by the Eko Enihcam (Coke Machine) waitin' for the 12:50 space ship.

To while away the time I clicked on my pocket TV just in time to catch Ruth Ann Atnipp, Shirley Ross, and Robbie Lowery in the TV version of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." Girls, we love your blonde hair. I turned the channel just in time to see Jayne Lemonds, Maxine Seagraves, and Peggy Garrett, the 3 top teen-age idols, singing "Don't Fence Me In," their new record on the Alcatraz Label. Then I switched the television Trans-Oceanic to the 1975 Olympics to see Jerry Ellis break the high-jump record and to see Herald Arnold win the heavy-weight championship of the world.

All at once I heard the space ship approaching the landing platform. Good gravy! Why there's Farmer Carlton Cook, who has a firm grip on the dairy business, coming home from the Cow-Poking Convention. And there's Mary Ellen Jeter, the newly-selected Miss Universe, descending the ramp. The Gleason High School Band, 1200-strong and directed by Larry Robertson is here to greet the celebrities. O mercy! There's Faye Runions and Dan Brummitt, who are starring in "Never Say Goodbye." I didn't think I'd see all those people.

I ran back into the Pan Am to catch the Vista-Phone ringing. Answering it, I saw Policeman Dickey Hamilton who had left his post at the red-light in Gleason to tell me that my Jet-Cycle was dirty. I asked Dickey to see if he could get Terry Jones to wash it. Dickey told me that Terry was in Washington; not only washing President Carolyn Woodruff's car, but also the first lady president's helicopter. Well, that's that.

As I hung up the phone I heard an awful noise and, glancing out the window, I saw Professor Dale Trentham, an outstanding scientist, trying to teach a college class the theory of hydrogomatrons (how to pop popcorn while flying through space.)

Leaving the Pan Am, I glanced at a recent newsgram. The Headlines were, "CONGRESSMAN JERRY BELEW STILL HOLDING A FILIBUSTER: GOING STRONG IN THE 3rd SESSION OF CONGRESS."

I went on over to the Art Gallery, where I met Joyce Long, now a famous artist, painting her chief subject, "Carl Lee." She told me that Bettye Maynard, a renowned math professor, is teaching at Harvard.

After seeing Don Phelps, a famous pro-football coach, who is home for a few weeks, I went to the refueling station where I heard that the former Lamon Boane is having trouble keeping all the little Sherwoods rounded up off the Air Force Base.

Back at the Pan Am, 'round the old pot-bellied stove, I fell to thinking about the rest of our class. Yes sir, the old class of '60 sure has gone places. You take Sue Trevathan, she is doing well as a "Pixie" in Disneyland. And there's Larry Arnold. He doesn't do anything but he does it slowly. Bettye Story, founder of the Purple Cross, is working at Walter Reed Hospital. Sue Stewart is now coaching the basketball team at Vassar, while Judy Choate is teaching History back at good ole' Gleason High School. Ruby Higgins is married to Jack Phelps and is secretary at Du Stan Metal Products.

Well sir, guess it's just about time to close up shop for the day. One thing I forgot--all of the faculty have retired and are enjoying their old age.

Time changes all.
