Love Ya Buster,

Congratulations

Class of 2008!

Pa, Nana, &
Aunt Donna

Congratulations Chris!
Keep Jesus Christ First!

From,
Bro. John Blankenship
"Youth Pastor"
The Church of Jesus Christ

Who would of known that seventeen years ago such a surprise could alter a life the way you did mine! Pride does not describe my feelings for you. Love is an understatement. I may have given birth to you, but you gave me life!
Love, Mom

I love you Chris! Do good in college.
Love you, Dakota

Tiffany,
We know this day has seemed like a long time coming, but it is finally here. You will walk down that aisle at graduation ending one triumph and stepping stone in your life to walk out into the adult world with more obstacles to overcome. You are a strong, unique, and loving young lady. You deserve the best life can offer you. Always remember to look to the Lord for guidance and strength. Always know in your heart, we love you and will always be here for you. We are proud of you and we love you.

Daddy, Mama, Ashley, &
Nannie

Stephen & Sadie Congratulations!

The two of you have been such a blessing in my life. It has been almost eighteen years since you were born, and I sit wondering where all the time has gone. I'm so proud of you both for all you have accomplished and look forward to seeing what all your future holds.

I love you,
Mom

Meg-

What a joy it has been to watch you grow into the strong, independent person that you are. Stay grounded, positive, and true to yourself and all of your dreams will come true!

We love you-

Mom, Dad, and Dusty

You have made my life so much happier by being my granddaughter.
Your truthful, loving, and caring ways will never be forgotten and will take you far in the New World ahead of you.

Loving you always,
Me-Maw June Oliver

Zac,

I want you to know I am very proud of you. It has been a long journey, but you finally made it. I wish you the very best in whatever you do. I love you very much, and I am glad to have you as a son. No matter what you decide to do, I will always be there for you.

Congratulations and I love you!

Mom

We are so proud of you. Son, you have filled a space in our heart and life nothing else ever will. We are here for you. Keep true to your heart! Keep your heart close to God! Live your life to the fullest!

Mom, Dad, and Granny

Katlin,

It seems like I have only blinked and you have gone from being my little "Pooh" to a beautiful young lady. God truly blessed me when he sent you to me. I know that your hard headed determination and compassion will continue to help you accomplish anything you put your heart and mind to. As you start this next phase of life, remember to always keep your faith in God and know that your family and true friends will always be here for you. I am so proud of you and love you.

Mom

Katlin,

It seems like only yesterday you were our baby. Now you are a beautiful young lady. You are the light and love of our life. God only gave us one grandchild, but he gave us the BEST in you. Always know we will be here for you. We are so proud of you. We love you so very much.

Granny & Papa

Katlin, sweetie,

Amy,
We love you so much! You have achieved more in 18 years than most people do in a lifetime. We are proud to be the parents of such a kind, generous, and loving, young lady. May the world you are entering in be kind and gentle to you and you receive all the success you deserve. We are so proud of you. Love you,
Mom & Dad

Taylor,
Wow... I can't believe I am writing your senior ad! It seems like such a short time ago I was getting you ready for kindergarten and look at you now about to graduate. Even though you were the baby, you always insisted on doing things yourself. I have always enjoyed watching you play sports, but even more than that, I have enjoyed watching you grow up. (Even though you are not completely there yet!)

I know we don't always see eye to eye on things, but I admire you for standing up for what you believe. You have a good heart and you are a great friend. As this phase of your life comes to an end, I pray that you meet the next with the same determination and convictions as before. I know you can accomplish whatever you choose in life. Set your goals high, let God lead you, and always remember...
Love Mom

Trae,

In eighteen years, you have had many names: Roc, Baby Trae, Trae Dawg, Little Vaughn, Vaughn, and my baby. You have always answered to all these names with a smile.

On October 23, 2000, as your blood pressure bottomed out and you changed colors before our eyes we prayed for a miracle. Your dad, Aaron, and I drove to Memphis as quickly as we could only to be told by the emergency room receptionist that you were no longer with us. As we screamed, "What do you mean?"

The receptionist realized her mistake and explained that you had been moved to another floor. They rushed you into surgery just five minutes before we arrived. You had three surgeries before the nurses brought you back to us. Our prayers were answered as you opened those beautiful blue eyes and smiled. You never cried, complained, or felt sorry for yourself. After a fourth surgery; you surpassed your doctors' expectations by making a full recovery. You, more than most, know the difference between being "Hurt" or "Injured".

Never doubt your strength.

You are an amazing young man and we are proud to call you son and brother.

We love you,

Mom, Dad, and Aaron

Edward,

You have had to grow up faster than most kids yet you have handled it like a pro. You may not be our biological son but you have completed our family and for that we are blessed. You not only have a place in our home but in our heart.

We love you,

Love ya! Dad.

Mema fed you icing that first day home. Your first word (I swear) was hungry.
On Daddy's chest you'd soundly sleep, you little baby bed Houdini.
You jumped off of Paw paw's porch and got hung upside down in Granny's tree.
Granny Ruby called you Lil Clifton but to us you were "Boodzie".

Big Boy and Tawny's little shadow playin' Nintendo and goin' to the pool.
You didn't like going to Dresden but you thrived at Gleason School.
We used angels and Christmas lights to calm your childhood fears...
Told you there were no gators in Tennessee and put your neck right here!

You're favorite things were wrestling, cookie sheets and your trampoline.
Before we knew it time had flown and our baby was a teen.
Ball game and practice schedules kept us asking has anyone seen Big Dave?
You got your license, fixed your truck and you were off with a wave.

It's so hard to believe 18 years have passed and graduation is at hand.
We cherish the memories of that growing boy, but we're very proud of Dave the man.
The future awaits you now and we know you can do anything you set your mind to.
Just keep the faith, treasure your memories, and never forget how much we love you!

Brooke,

When you first entered our lives, you caused such a stir of emotions. We were proud, amazed, unsure, and a little scared. Now that it is time to let you go and make your own way in life, we are again feeling all of those same emotions. You have so much potential and we have so much faith in you. You are a beautiful, smart, independent young lady, but most of all you have a truly loving heart. We thank God for the gift of our little girl. Remember to keep your faith in God, and always put him first.

We are always there if you need us.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Brookie,

I think you are a sweet sister. Thanks for driving me to school every morning. I will miss you being at home and I will miss your hugs.

Congratulations Brooke!

So quickly the years have flown by, and now you are a senior. You are about to close one chapter in your life, but the next chapter should be even more exciting because you can write it as you wish. You are such a talented young lady, so set your goals, reach for the stars, and you go for it. We are so proud of you and all the joy you have given us.

PHILIPPIANS 4:13 I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me.

Tyler

You are terrific. I am so proud of the person you have become. I can't wait to see how the next part of your life will play out. Keep your sense of humor and stay true to yourself and always remember I love you.

Love,

Mom

Tyler

You've made headlines ever since you came into this world, beginning with your birth on the side of the road, till now, with your high academic scores, football statistics, and an outstanding singing talent. I'm most proud though because of your stand for Christ and your faithfulness to Him. This is where your success and happiness will come from as you pursue your other life goals.

I love you

Proud Dad

Tyler, We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. Always let the Lord use you and you will be blessed.

We love you,

Nanny & Granddaddy

Tyler,

I am just glad I am not your younger brother because you set the bar too high.

Love,

Josh

Hey Bro,

I am really gonna miss that trap block. You have been an inspiration and a leader to me.

Tyler,

I love you so much! I'm going to miss you bunches - especially when we take off the pool cover! Thanks for setting great examples for me to follow. save me a spot at Vandy!

Sam,

I never thought of you as a cousin but as a brother. May you consider life as a blessing and enjoy it.

Love always,

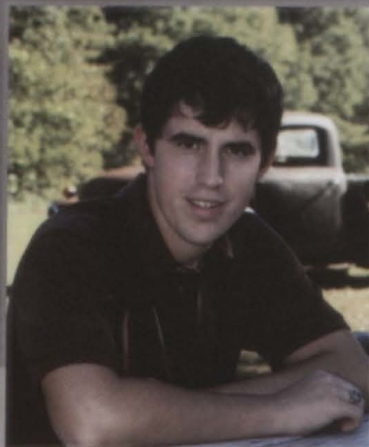

Jake

P.S. If you ever need someone to talk to I am there for you.

Samuel Lyle Owen

We are so proud of you. You have grown into one special young man. Keep Psalms 62:7 in your heart " In God is my salvation and my glory; the rock of strength and my refuge, is in God."

Love, Uncle Kelvin & Aunt Carolyn

Samuel Lyle

We are very proud of the young man you are. We know that the Christian morals and teachings of your grandfather will get you through anything in life. You have developed strength through your difficulties and disappointments in life. Keep your strong Christian faith and morals. This will help you accomplish your goals of life.

We are very proud of you.

Love, Dad and Mom

"Thoughts"

Being around the little ones make me realize I have so much more in life to learn, as they do. The look of adoration in the eyes of the little ones is payment enough for the diaper changes, stories read, and all the many extra steps, made for them all worthwhile. Remember the golden rule is where it all begins and ends.
"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Nanny

Life is like a game of Rook. It is not the cards life has dealt you that is important, but how you play them makes a difference.
You have played your cards of life with high morals and common sense. Keep your head on straight and use your common sense.

Granddaddy

Sam,
Gah! I can't believe that you are a senior! It seems like only yesterday that I was where you are today. Although you are my little brother, you have always inspired me with your willpower when the times get rough and your faith in Jesus Christ that is unbreakable. You have been a leader this year being a BIG SENIOR, and I am proud of the encouraging leadership that you have established through your actions. Enjoy the rest of your senior year and cherish the many memories that you have and look forward to the many memories that you have yet to establish in your years in college. There is still so much to be learned in the years to come. I love you very much and am very proud of your accomplishments! Oh by the way... in order to accomplish your life ambitions you must keep in mind that although Erica might tell you differently... you know that I am your FAVORITE and MOST INTELLIGENT SISTER, so don't let her fool you with her REVERSE PSYCHOLOGY tricks!
Love ya,
Ellen

Sam,
Bro, you made it!! You are a graduate! Luckily you did not fail! HAHA! Seriously, you are a great person and you have an awesome personality. Have fun at college and get TTU ready for me! Don't mess up your new truck.
Love,
James

Sam,
I think this might be a good time to assure you that you are not, in fact, adopted. I know Ellen and I worked hard at convincing you of that when we were little, but we actually do share the same genetics. Now that we have that out of the way, it is so hard to believe that the little boy that I used to pick on and dress up is getting ready to graduate high school and enter college. I am so proud of the young man that you have become, and more importantly how strongly you have grown in your faith. You have accomplished so much and you have alot to be proud of in your achievements. Good luck in all your future endeavors and always keep God number one in your life. You can accomplish anything you set your mind to!
Love your favorite sister (sorry Ellen it's true),
Erica

Sam,
Congratulations and good luck in college, especially with the ladies!
Casey

Lacie Alane,

Our lives have been so overjoyed and blessed by you. You have grown into such a beautiful young lady, inside and out. But more than the beautiful person you have become, you have blessed and made our lives so much more beautiful. We are so proud of you, and so grateful God chose us as your family. We have always known you would grow up, but all the while wishing we could just slow time down. Life is ever changing though, and as you begin a new journey always know the love and pride we have for you is constant and never changing. Our wish for your future is much happiness, for that is true success. Keep God first, and with that, nothing is impossible. You are an amazing, priceless gift, our gift we will forever treasure.

Keep smiling "Lacie Bug"...

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

We Love You So Very Much!

Mom and Dad

Lacie,

What a pleasure it has been watching you grow into the beautiful young woman you have become! So many memories cloud our minds of the "good ole days" when things were so simple and seemed so perfect. Now as you face this milestone and move on to the next challenge, we can't wait to, once again, watch you grow. You have all the qualities to be successful and happy. We hope and pray that you learned some of those at our house. We think of you like one of the family and treasure those days that have flown by much too quickly. Stand firm in the values that make you unique... others will see the real you if you hold fast to high ideals. We love you with all our hearts, we pray that God will continue to bless you and those you love, and we will always be in your corner cheering you on. Be safe, be happy, and most importantly... BE YOU!!!

All our love forever,

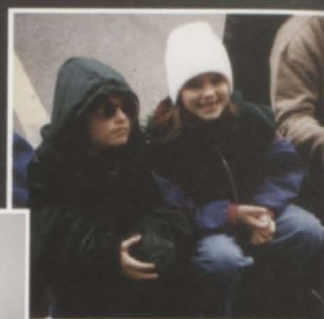

Mr. Larry, Ms. Kay, and Haley

Lace,

How could I begin to put enough memories to fill up a hundred books on one small page in your senior yearbook? The moment we have shared over the years began when we were silly little girls in first grade, the best of friends in middle school, to now when we think we are all grown up but still are really those same silly little girls. The secrets we have shared, the laughter that turned to tears, the advice we have given, the actions that have spoken much louder than any words, and the friendship that in the end still stands up against any adversity have made us much better people and the kind of friends that others just dream about. We have seen eye to eye, fought long and hard, drifted apart, but have the courage to come back to what our hearts can't live without- each other. I have always needed you. I need you now, and I will forever need our special bond in my life. You walk in when others walk out, love me at my worst and my best, share my greatest victories and defeats, wear my number proudly on your cheek and are there even if it has to be, at times, from a distance. For all of these things and millions more, I say thanks, I love you, and good luck. May the future hold for you all the success and happiness you deserve. I am only a phone call/text away and I will get to you... no matter what!!

Kayla

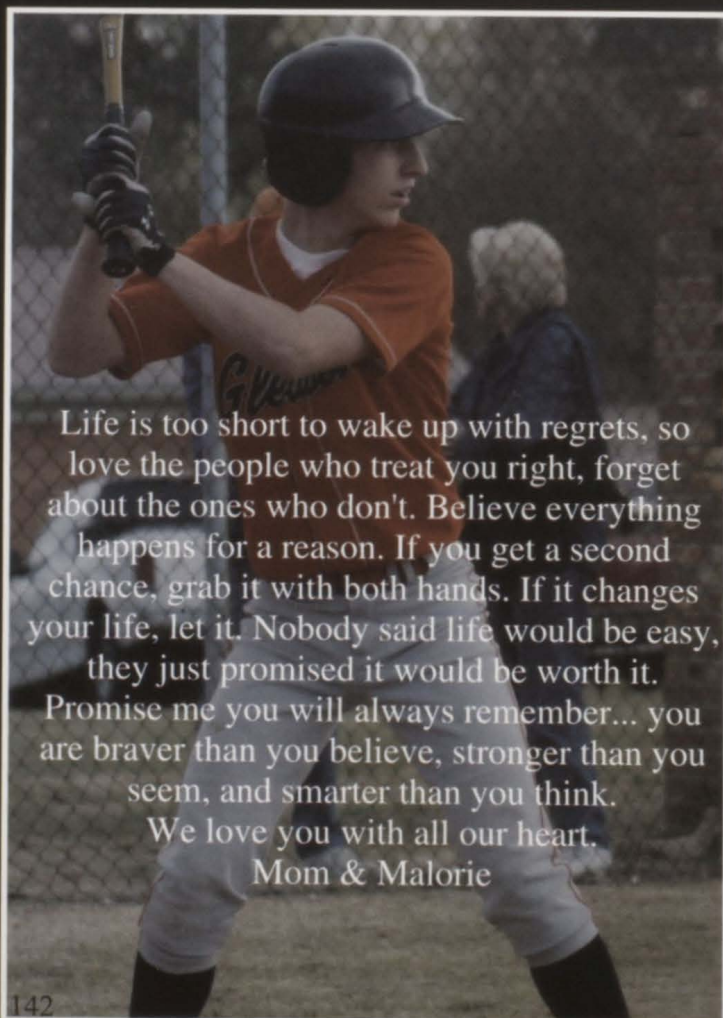

Kayla and Meagan,

One of our greatest pleasures in life has been watching you grow. You are both amazing young women and we have no doubt that you will accomplish great things. Always remember the love that surrounded you growing up and carry it with you everywhere.

Love You!

Mama, Daddy, Molly, Ally, & David

Life is too short to wake up with regrets, so love the people who treat you right, forget about the ones who don't. Believe everything happens for a reason. If you get a second chance, grab it with both hands. If it changes your life, let it. Nobody said life would be easy, they just promised it would be worth it. Promise me you will always remember... you are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think.

We love you with all our heart.
