Bri,
You are the sweetest and most caring granddaughter anyone can have. You have come so far in life and will go farther in whatever you choose.

Love Nana

Briana,
I am very proud of you for all that you have achieved through the years. All the long nights sitting at ball games will be missed and having to get you up for school every morning. You still have more to accomplish in life. Nothing is easy. So hold your head up high and do your very best.

Bri,
We are so proud of you! You have done great things in your life, and we know you will do great things in college. You have been the bright spot in our lives. You and your brother have made us so happy, so keep up the good work.

Love Mema and Papa

BRIANA,
I LOOK UP TO YOU. I AM NOT SURE WHAT I WILL DO WHEN I
NEED A BOOK FROM MY LOCKER. I HOPE YOU WILL DO GOOD
IN YOUR FUTURE CAREER. I WILL MISS YOU A LOT FOR MY RIDE TO SCHOOL - NOW BACK TO THE YELLOW BUS.

LOVE,
YOUR BROTHER SETH

Blake,

It is hard to believe 18 years have already passed and you will be facing a new journey. We have been blessed and enjoyed watching you grow and learn. We are proud of your faith, strength and determination that has made you the person you are today. Keep God first in your life, set your goals high and you can achieve your dreams.

We love you,
Dad & Mom

Bre,

Independent, unique, stubborn, intelligent - this is a description of a once quiet, shy, sweet, darling little girl. We are proud of you. Stay on the road to your dreams. They are within your reach.

Love, Tammie, Johnny, Tessa, and Tyler

Breanna,

We are so proud of you. You are a very smart young lady and have accomplished so much by working hard. You have always been a hard worker. Your papaw would be so proud of the beautiful young lady you have become. He loved you so much. Stay close to God and live for Him and He will always direct you in the path you need to take.

Love Ya,

Granny, Trent, Amanda, and Tantyn

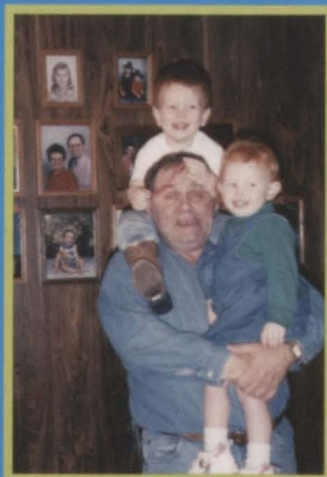

BRE,

TIME HAS GONE BY WAY TOO FAST, WE LOVE YOU SO MUCH AND ARE SO PROUD OF ALL YOUR HARD WORK. MAY ALL YOUR WISHES AND GOALS COME TRUE.

LOVE MOM, BILLY, AND BRANDON

Bre,

My little Bre, you have turned into a fine young lady. Always reach for the stars. I found one of my stars in you.

Love you,
Poppa Jimmy

Brandon,

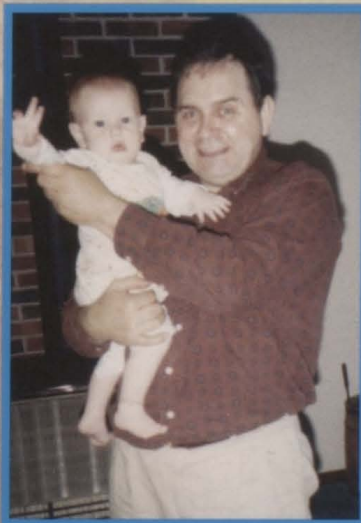

It seems such a short time ago that you were annoying the heck out of everyone, just because you could. You have grown into a fine young man. We are proud of you. Good job "Red."

Love, Tammie, Johnny, Tessa, and Tyler

Brandon,
We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. We know you can do what you set your mind to do. Your papaw would be so proud of the young man you've turned into. He loved you so much. You were his little "Brandola." Stay close to God and He will make your paths straight.

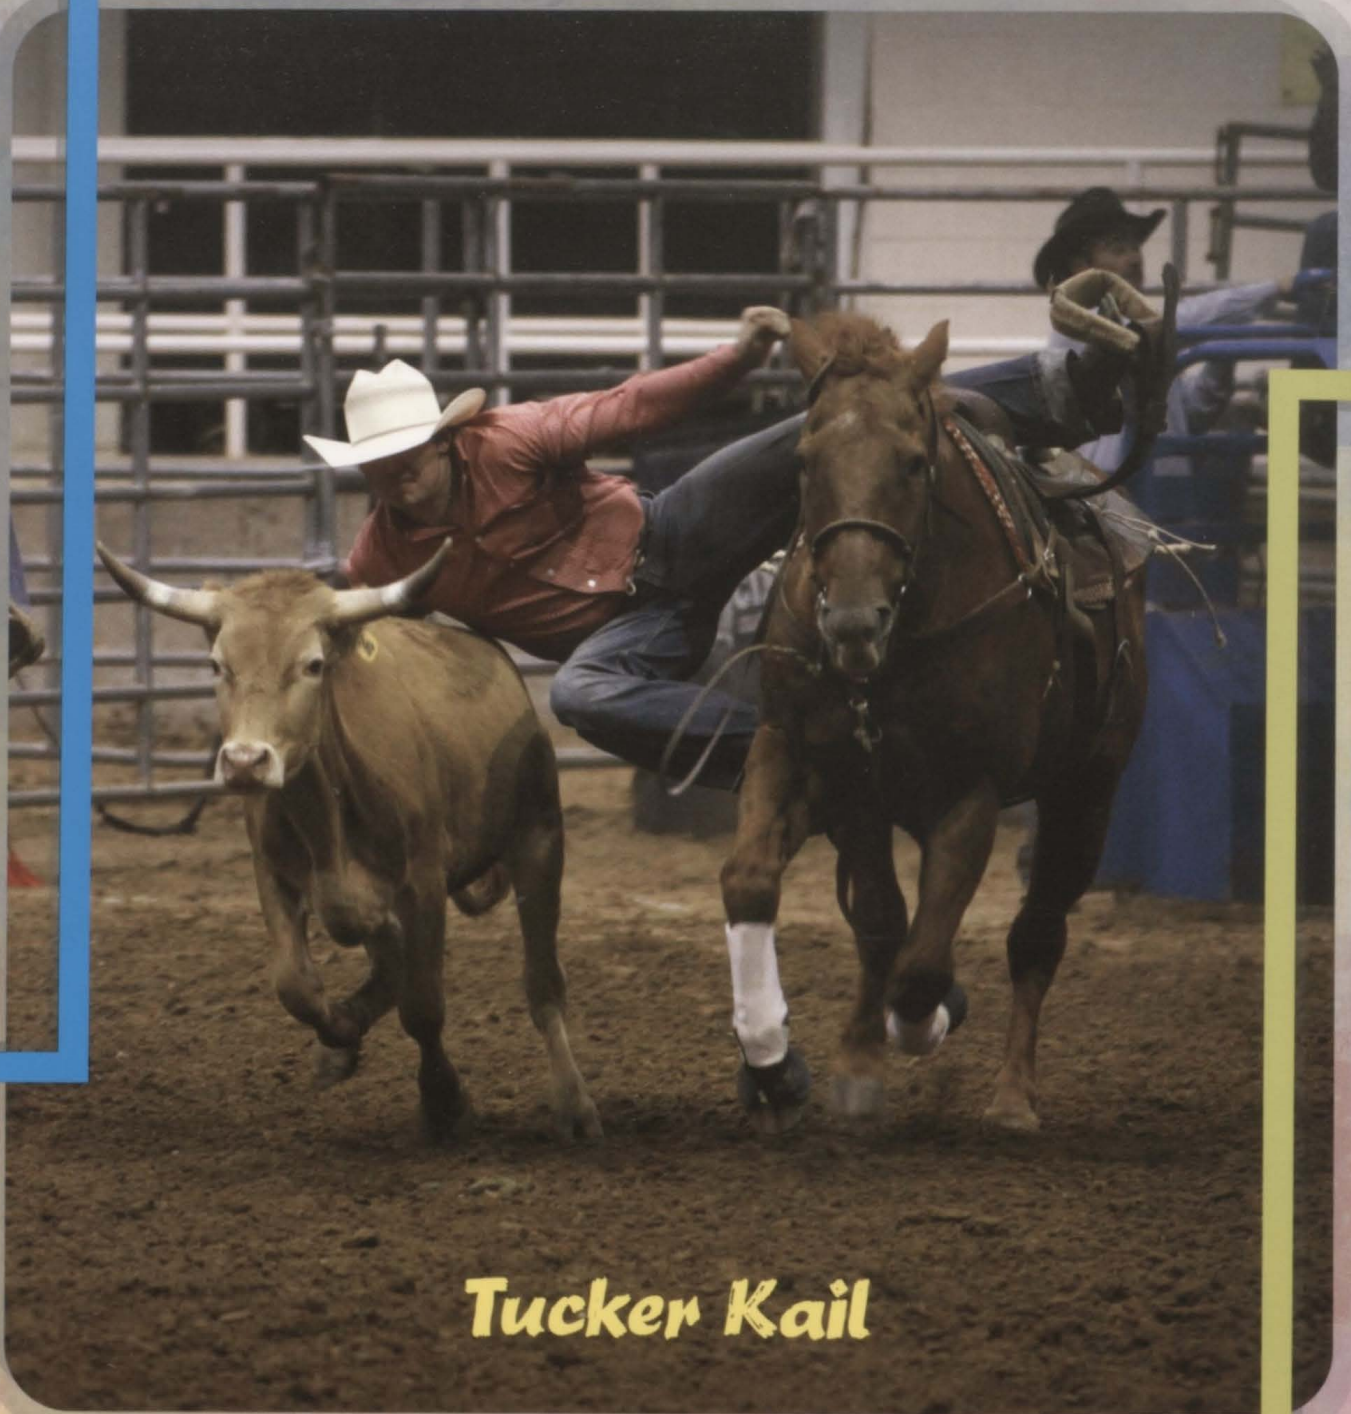

Love Ya Big Red,
Granny, Trent, Amanda, and Tantyn

BRANDON,
WE ARE SO PROUD
OF YOU. YOU HAVE BROUGHT JOY TO OUR LIVES AND WE WISH YOU ALL THE BEST LIFE HAS TO OFFER.

Brandon, my grandson, the Big Red Giant -
Life has been good to us. I pray that it will be all you ever hoped for.

With love - Your Poppa
P.S. Sure am proud of you

Tucker Kail

Tucker,
Can't believe you are graduating! Where has the time gone? You have made us so proud in more ways that you will ever know. You have given us so many memories to treasure and look forward to many more. Keep your head as you have this far, keep your faith, dream big and there will be nothing you can't accomplish in this next phase of your life. We love you!

Mom, Jeremy, Goggie, and Granddaddy

P.S. I know your Dad is smiling down and watching over you daily. He is just as proud as I am. Blessed am I to be your Mom.

Love you, Mom

Congratulations!! You did it. We are so proud of you and all of your hard work. You are a very sweet and special person. We love you more than you will ever know. Good luck in your future plans. We know you can achieve anything you set your mind to. Again, congratulations and we love you.

Love always,
Mom, Eddie, Deena,
Greg, Ericka, and Isaac

Paige,

You are our first-born and a true inspiration to all of us. For eighteen wonderful years, you have continued to amaze us with your faith in God, yourself, and others. I can still remember my heart dropping when the doctors told us that you had Type I diabetes at the age of fourteen, and how heartbroken you were. Instead of you worrying about yourself, you called your sister and told her, "God gave me diabetes so that you wouldn't be alone." You make us so proud to be your parents and we are so thankful to God for entrusting us with your precious life. No matter what you choose in life, we know you will do your best and will continue to grow as you start your new chapter in life.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, Beth, Tyler, and Faith

"A daughter is the happy memories of the past, the joyful moments of the present, and the hope and promise of the future."

Author unknown

Always remember God gives us long rocky paths, so that when we reach the top of our mountains, we enjoy the view better.

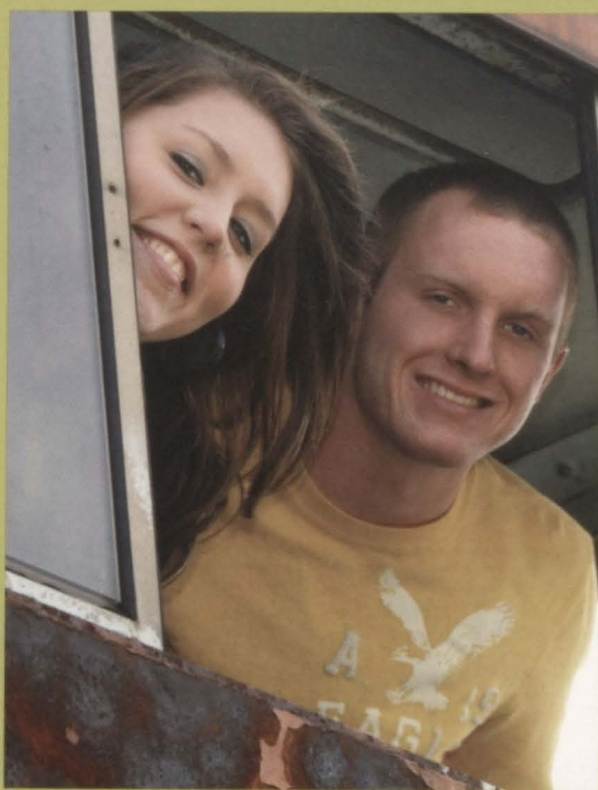

Austin,

I am so very proud of the young man you have grown to be. You have always went through life giving everything you have done, your all. I know you will continue to do so, but that doesn't make it any easier for me to let my first baby go. I love you, baby. May God bless your life as you have blessed mine. Love, Momma

Austin,

It has been a blast getting to know you, watch you play sports, and take you hunting and fishing. I hope that I have taught you something in the last two years that will benefit you in the next part of your life. Don't give up on any dream that you have. If you need me I'll be there for you, just ask.

Love ya, Brent

Lauren,

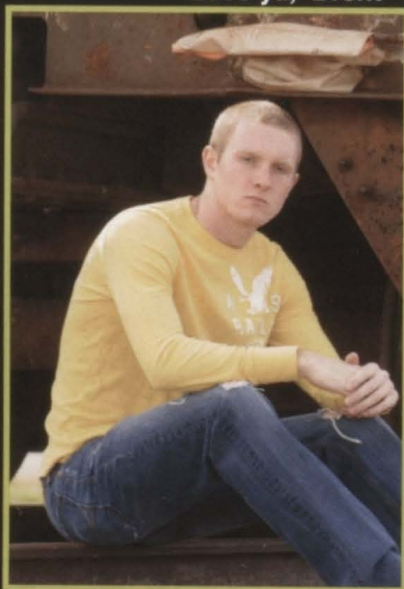

Sometimes life gives you the unexpected. At the age of twelve, you came to live with us. We were hoping to teach you the right things in life so that the decisions you make in life will benefit you best. Good luck with all that you do. I'm sure your Aunt Kristie would be proud of you.

Love you, Uncle Brent

Lauren,

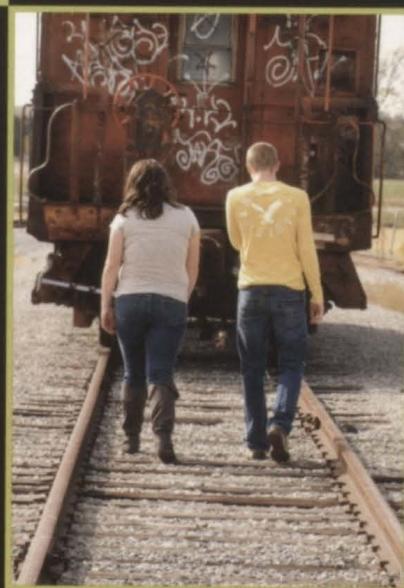

I was so blessed the day you became my daughter. I see this young lady ready to jump into this big ol' world head first. I am so proud of you and I know you will make a great life for yourself. I love you, baby girl.

Love, Ma'am

We are proud of ya'll and we love you both.

Tracy, Madison,
Jacob, Allison

Dylan,
It's hard to believe you are all grown up. It seems like yesterday I was holding you in my arms. The last 18 years have flown by so fast! I can't believe it's almost graduation. I'm so proud of you!!! I want you to always believe in yourself. Just remember that I love you and will support you in your decisions on your future. Always follow your heart and trust in God and His plan for you. I love you and congratulations!

Love you, Mom

Dyl,
WOW! I can't believe my little brother is all grown up! It's hard to believe that in only a few short months you will be out in the "real world." Just remember I'm always here if you need me, and you may be bigger, but I'm still older! Love You!

Congratulations!

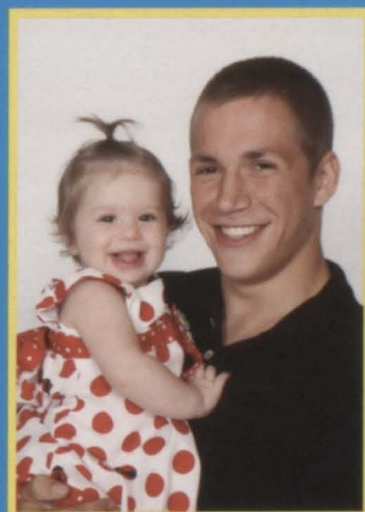

Kim

'DD,'

Congratulations! It's so awesome having you as my uncle! I can't wait to go fishing, four wheeler riding, and playing outside this summer! Thanks for being the best uncle anyone could ask for!

I wuv u!
Zoe Bug

Leslie,
You had my heart and all my love from the first minute I held you. I wanted to hold you forever and never let you go. Then you crawled, walked, ran, and climbed. With pride I watched you every day grow stronger. I am so proud of you for always standing up for what you believe in. Even though, I still want to hold you forever and never let you go, the time has come. As you go out into this great big world, always remember that you go with my heart and all my love. I'm so glad that God gave me you to love.

I love you, Mom
(Mushi-Mushi-Mahi-Mahi ---LOL)

Jaelyn
We were busy throughout the day
Didn't have much time to play
The little games you asked us to,
We didn't have much time for you.
I'd wash the clothes, clean, and cook,
But when you'd bring your picture book
And ask me please to share your fun,
I'd say, 'A little later, Jaelyn.'
We tucked you in all safe at night
Hugs and kisses, turn out the lights,
Then tiptoe safely to the door ...
Wishing we'd stayed a minute more.
For life is short, the years rush past ...
Our little girl grew up so fast.
No longer is she at our side,
Her precious secrets to confide.
The picture books are put away,
There are no longer games to play.
No goodnight kiss, no prayers to hear,
That all belongs to yesteryear.
Our hands, once busy, now are still.
The days are long and hard to fill.
We wish we could go back and do,
The little things you asked us to!!!

We love you Jaelyn,
Mom and Dad

Wil Freeman's science fair project entitled "The Influence of Wing Design and Aspect Ratio on the Lift and Drag of an Aircraft" placed first in the regional science fair at Union University. Wil earned an all expense paid trip to the Intel International Science and Engineering Fair held in Phoenix, Arizona. This is the world's largest international pre-college science competition. More than 1,500 high school students from over 70 different countries shared their independent research and competed for more than three million dollars.

What faculty member auditioned for American Idol Season 13 and received an invitation to Hollywood?
(see page 83 for answer)

Ilene Taylor
Educational Assistant

Mrs. Ilene Taylor was tragically killed in a car accident in the fall. She is remembered as being a caring, concerned person. She was willing to lend a helping hand to those who needed it in various kinds of situations. Along with expecting the best out of the students she worked with, she also wanted them to enjoy learning. Whether it was embracing a new concept or reviewing a previously learned concept, she expected her students to participate and do their best. Patience and understanding were evident as she worked with students. She will certainly be missed.

OUR PASSION allowed Student Council members to entertain and serve the senior citizens of our community at the annual Christmas dinner. OUR PASSION led the Beta students to partner with and read to elementary students. It took OUR PASSION to practice our lines, create our costumes, and muster up our courage to perform Cinderella's Dream in front of the student body.

Read-in-the-Dark Week

During the week of Halloween, elementary students in the Gleason School Library were treated to thrills and chills as part of an annual reading promotion program called "READ-IN-THE-DARK." Each year, anticipation is built throughout the month of October as a myriad of signs begin to appear in the elementary hallways: "Beware of a SCARE! Read-in-the-Dark Week is Coming Soon to Your Friendly School Library!" During this special week, the library lights remain off. Each student is given a flashlight as they enter the library, and are invited to use it for a variety of activities: to peruse books and magazines, during check out time, and even while dancing to "The Monster Mash." Older elementary students use their flashlights to find a spot anywhere in the library to "read in the dark." While reading in the dark, spooky Halloween music is played. The program excites children about reading by using Halloween books such as Joey the Jack-o-Lantern, The Little Old Lady Who Wasn't Afraid of Anything, The Teeny Tiny Ghost, or teacher-made stories that feature the students as the characters. Students enjoy this "Read-in-the-Dark" week each year at the Gleason Library, where reading comes alive.

Mrs. Sherri Brawner's Pre-K students enjoy looking at books and using flashlights during "Read-in-the-Dark" week in the Gleason School Library.

"Read Across America Day" is celebrated in schools across the nation to honor Dr. Seuss and to encourage a love of reading.

Accelerated Reader Winners

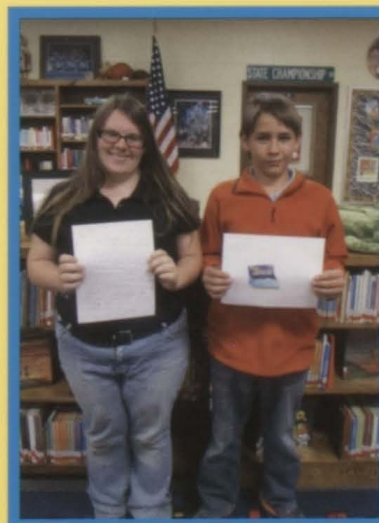

Read to Succeed!

First and second graders at Gleason School recently enjoyed stories read by members of the Bethel Men's Basketball Team. Bethel players journeyed to Gleason on four separate occasions, reading stories which included "If You Take a Mouse to the Movies", "Cha-Cha Chimps", and "The Boy Who Wouldn't Go to Bed", among others. Students look to these players as role-models, both in athletics and in academics.

In the school library, eighth graders enjoyed studying a literary unit based on the short story, "The Storm," written by McKnight Malmar. As a culminating activity, students were given the option to either design a cover illustration or to write an alternate ending. Virginia Ballew won the alternate ending category. Joseph Tate won the cover illustration.

This year's Lady Bulldogs were led by the example of the seniors Briana Jones (far right), Jaclyn Montgomery (right) and Kim Quick (below). Their hard work and determination spoke loudly this year on and off the court. They played every game as if it was their last, and that was certainly a factor in their win over Dresden Lady Lions to be 13A District Champions.

The girls had the team this year that was ready for anything. If you were to go into the gym before this season, you would have heard a combination of sounds in the air: squeaking shoes, words of encouragement, coaches coaching, and the laughter in the locker winding down after a hard day of practice. The leadership of the seniors was evident in that all three were named to the All-District Team.

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the LORD.

"They are plans for good and not disaster, to give you a future and a hope. In those days when you pray, I will listen. If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me. I will be found by you," says the LORD.
