community

The 2017-18 school year was quite eventful for Gleason School. It showed the sense of community that the students, teachers, and staff felt. A true community is not just about being geographically close to someone or part of the same social web network; it's about feeling connected and responsible for what happens. Humanity is our ultimate community, and everyone plays a crucial role.

For example, on August 21, 2017, our school gathered to view the solar eclipse. Students were scattered around the building, on the bleachers, and teachers littered the football field. Around 2:20 P.M., all heads were turned toward the heavens to catch even just a glimpse of the spectacular event, all wearing their protective glasses, of course. This event was just one instance in which the Bulldogs proved how tightly knit they were as a community.

Since then, there have been several similar occurences at sporting events, conventions, fund-raisers, and more. Time and time again, Gleason proves itself more than a school but a community. A community that is thriving.

The third grade class smiles happily in their eclipse glasses.

Mrs. Trish Price
Principal

Mrs. Trish Price, who has been the principal at Gleason School for nine years and kindergarten teacher prior to that position, has dedicated her time to every individual in this school. She has shown the students and staff that kindness, respectfulness, and compassion are extremely important characteristics to maintain in every walk of life. Thank you Mrs. Trish for your devotion to Gleason School and for molding students as well as teachers to be the most hardworking and determined individuals we can be.

SAME OW!

Teamwork makes the dream work.

Bulldogs are a team. Bulldogs are family.
Bulldogs compete as one. Bulldogs win or lose, rise or fall as a team. Game after game the team keeps each other motivated. The coaches push the Bulldogs to strive to become the best they know the team can be. Their mistakes become lessons learned. Bulldogs fight until the end. Bulldogs never quit!

not just BOWS

The GHS cheerleaders prove that they are more than just bows and pompoms.

From cheering on the sidelines to flying through the air in a blur of orange, black, and white, it takes athleticism to be a cheerleader at Gleason High School. The season begins in May with the cheerleaders working hard to learn all of their cheers. "We practiced hard every single day before school to make sure our routine was perfect and as clean as possible," says Claire O'Connor about morning practices.

During the summer the cheer team travels to GCA to learn their homecoming routines and work on perfecting their stunts. "First of all, cheerleading is a sport because we practice hard and cheerleaders are heavier than a football, basketball, etc.," says Madison Fuzzell about how cheerleading is a sport. During football and basketball season the team works together to cheer on the Bulldogs and pump up the crowd.through cheers and awesome stunts. Trusting your stunt group is very important for perfecting your stunts, and it also gives everyone a boost of confidence to do all of the other hard tasks," says flyer stunt group is important.

Flyin' high Belle Fowler flies high to enthuse the crowd during a time out in a very close game against Huntingdon.

The 2017-2018 boys basketball team represented Gleason High School well this year. Watching from the sidelines, we saw the boys improve exponentially, and this was thanks to great leaders and a deeply-rooted sense of togetherness in the team.

One of the main reasons that the boys improved so much is because of their genuine love for the game. The extensive practices, the grueling conditioning, the lengthy bus rides - everything. The sheer love and passion for the game that the Bulldogs share is the secret behind their success and tremendous teamwork.

general, preparing is a must in order to be successful. Every day what you do and how you do it is preparing for the next day. This season, the "prepare4one" motto, has been our goal on and off the court. This team has been committed to this motto and has shown a tremendous work ethic that has kept the tradition of Gleason Lady Bulldogs basketball. This motto will help each girl through the rest of her life. Along with this, "Great attitude plus great effort will always equal success."

It's a TEAM Effort

"The past 5 years have flown by. Coach J has always held us to very high standards and that allowed us to succeed both on and off the field."

-Braxton Vickers

"Coaching baseball is a dream come true. It's neat seeing a kid start playing with little or at times hardly any skill, and if he sticks with it, develops into a baseball player. I enjoy relating baseball mindset to life in general. I tell the guys to not let the last play affect the next play. This is very valuable in the real world as well: don't let your past determine your future. Control what you can control and when failure comes your way, deal with it and move past it." -Coach J

4 bases,

What is the most difficult part of your position?

"In left field, you have to be quick to judge where the ball is going and if you mess up, you have no time to dwell on it."

"On 3rd base, when the ball is coming to me, it's always coming the fastest. You have to be mentally and physically tough to play this spot."

Hustle, Hit, & Never Quit

The junior high team fought through a tough season. They learned from their mistakes, striving to do their best against each opponent. The Dawgs played as a team and never gave up. The coaches shaped them to be better football players. With the team's unity and strong leadership, they were able to stay determined and compete throughout their season.

Most importantly, they made memories that will last a lifetime.

Q&A

What does school spirit mean to you?

"As a cheerleader, school spirit is an accomplishment because having the maximum amount of spirit is our main goal. School spirit encourages our fellow athletes to strive to do their best".

-Gracie Long

What is your favorite thing about being a cheerleader? "You get to cheer for the Bulldogs and show people what school spirit is all about."

-Allison Arnold

What does it take to be a GJHS cheerleader?

"To be a GJHS cheerleader you have to love our school and have a great amount of school pride."

SHO

The GJHS boys basketball team put up a fight this past season. They faced many difficult opponents, but they never backed down.

Carter Cooper looks for the pass hoping to set up a play.

Q&A

What's a typical practice like? "When we walk into the gym, we get dressed, get a ball, and shoot until practice starts. Then we do ball handling, go over plays, and run until someone makes two free throws."

-Carter Cook

When did you first become interested in basketball? "I first became interested in basketball in the 4th grade."

-Isaac Denton

The junior high boys basketball team strived to improve their record. Play by play, every step the team took, they improved. There were several challenging teams the boys had to face, and overcoming some of those was a major game changer. They will remember the mistakes they made and turn those mistakes into inspiring actions. Never let the fear of messing up keep you from playing your hardest.

FACTS

- >The teams work ethic improved this year; therefore, our success on the court improved as well. That's usually how it works.
- >Brandon Moore is the most intense player on the court and on the bench that I have ever coached.
- >This team is full of characters. They are fun to coach and fun to be around.
- >Our 8th graders had great attitudes all year. We didn't win as many games as we wanted, but great attitude and great effort was ALL we asked for. We always received that from them.

Practice Makes Perfect

"This team is full of character and a great work ethic. If these girls continue to work hard, they have a chance to be a special team. They continue to improve each year, and this year was no different. They are a great group of girls, and they are the kind of players every coach wants to coach."

-Coach Luke Hughes

Q&A

What would you change if you could replay the season? "It would be to help prepare my team and myself for the tournaments and win the championship."

-Carrington Lifsey

What do you think you have improved in most this season? "This season I individually think I have improved in being a leader and making better decisions on-and-off the court."

-Alayna Anderson

What advice could you give to someone wanting to play basketball? "My advice would be if you want to play basketball be prepared to work hard and work together with your team."
-Grace Stafford

How do you stay motivated after losing a game?

"I stay positive and I think about what I can do better the next game."

Student Congress on Policies in Education

In March two Gleason juniors are selected based on their academic class ranking to attend the SCOPE conference at Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. This year Dalana Veazey and Chloe Martin had the honor of attending the conference with six other students from Weakley County.

During the conference, the juniors are divided into groups with other students across the state and debate various issues relevant to modern Tennessee education. A speaker is determined for each group, and the group prepares him or her to debate a specified issue in front of the entire conference crowd.

Each year, the yearbook staff must design the entire yearbook. We must also make sure that it pleases not only the high school, but the entire school. We work diligently to finish on time and with clarity. Essentially, we are in charge of creating this school year's history book so that we can come back to these times and relive them in our memories.

Lillie Freeman, Claire O'Connor, Libby Smith, and Martha Nichols were selected to participate in the Weakley County Youth Leadership program. In this program students from across the county come together for sessions, visit various businesses, and learn more about Weakley County. Youth Leadership provides opportunities for students to connect with school officials, community leaders, and even state representatives.

The Governor's Volunteer Stars Awards is an initiative from Volunteer Tennessee that seeks to recognize outstanding volunteers from each of Tennessee's 95 counties. Jayne-Shaye Bailey was chosen as the Weakley County Youth Honoree.

Rising Star

The Rising Star Summit is a leadership program designed for West Tennessee's future leaders. This event was held on the University of Tennessee at Martin's campus. Seth Bowers received the honor of attending this summit.

Seniors Seth Bowers and Chandler Brawner attended Boys State held on the campus at Tennessee Technological University. Seth Bowers commented, "Boys State was a great experience to meet new people and learn how to work with people you are not familiar with, and my favorite memory was my city winning third place overall." Chandler Brawner stated, "My favorite memory was going undefeated in the volleyball tournament. Boys State helped further my leadership skills and taught me how to build relationships with others." Both boys learned more about the organization of city, county, and state governments. They participated in many different activities and learned many helpful skills.

D.A.R.

The D.A.R. Good Citizen program and scholarship contest encourages and rewards the qualities of good citizenship. The student that is selected must have the qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism to an outstanding degree. This year Seth Bowers was the recipient of the D.A.R award.

To honor our veterans, Gleason School presented a Veteran's Day program on Friday, November 10. Teachers, students, and 38 veterans attended the program, as well as community members. Everyone was greeted by decorations provided by elementary students. Mrs. Trish Price began the program welcoming visitors and then led the assembly in the Pledge of Allegiance, as third graders Kenlee Suddath and Camari Byrd brought in the American flag. Sophie Wilson and Grace Stafford sang a beautiful acapella rendition of "America the Beautiful." Students ranging from PreK through 12th grade presented each letter of the word "VETERANS" as a visual acrostic portion of the program. As the program continued, Madison Dellinger, as well as Autum Wilson, McKayla Ivy, and Caleb Cary, expressed their gratitude by reading a portion of their essays in honor of the veterans. Wes Wainscott, a fourth grader, dazzled the crowd by singing "Glorious Freedom" and received a standing ovation. Finally, Mr. Larry Morgan closed the program by singing, "God Bless the USA." Guests were inspired to stand during the moving rendition of the song. Veterans stayed after the program to visit, to make pictures, and to enjoy cookies and lemonade provided by the cafeteria.

Throughout the school year, Luke achieved many awards for his creativity and intelligence. His hard work, determination, and drive demonstrated his dedication to his achievements. Luke participated in three 4-H contests: photography, speech, and demonstration. He was the class winner in the photography contest. Also, he was the class winner, county winner, and West TN Regional winner in the speech and demonstration competition. Luke also acquired many Accelerated Reader awards. He accumulated a whopping 402.5 points which was more than any student in the school (K-12) as well as having the highest A.R. average school-wide with a 99.7%. Luke also won the titles of Most Words Read in Grades K-5, Million Word Club, Librarian's Choice Award, and All-Star Award. Luke set a grand total of four different school records related to Accelerated Reader.

Although their journey at Gleason School has come to an end, the memories will last a lifetime. As they move into the next chapter of their lives, they will never forget the events and people that helped get them to where they are now. They will never forget the Community that supported them each step of their journey.

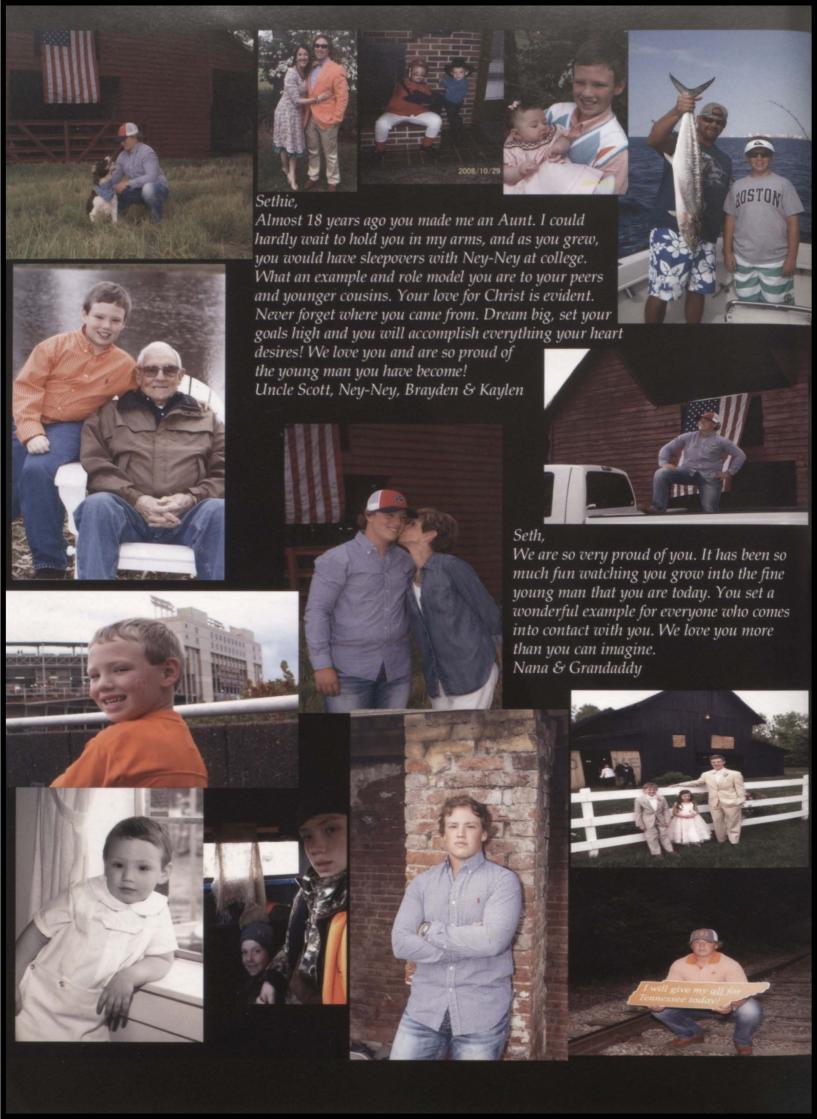

Seth.

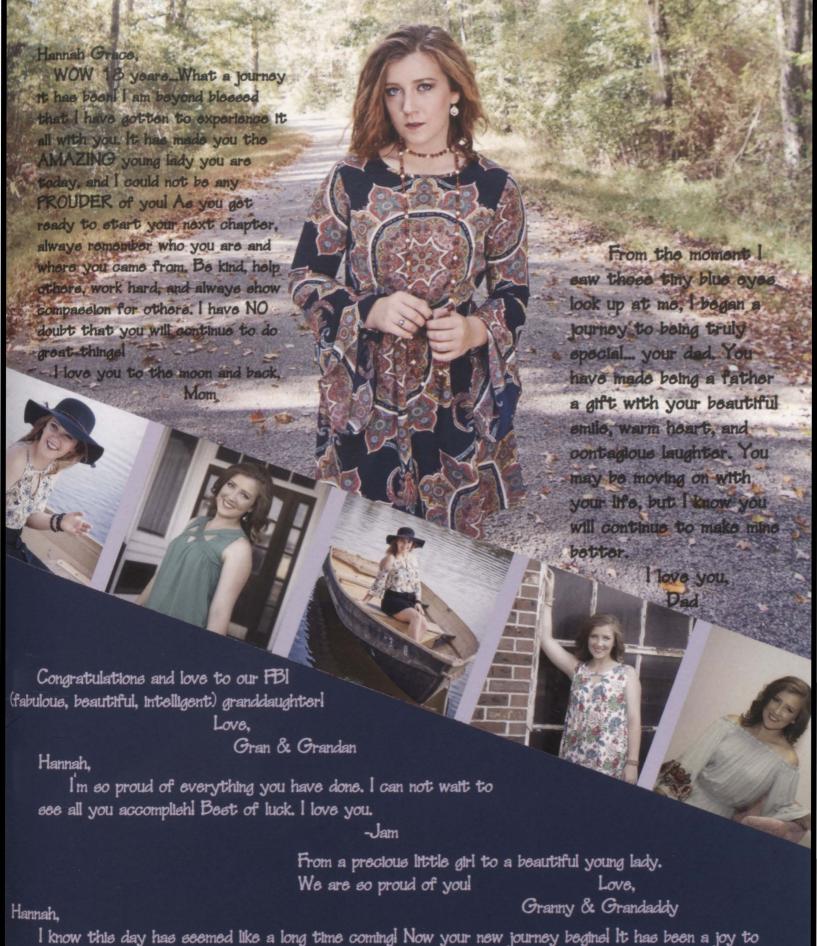

You were always in that little red car begging someone to push you around Gramma's living room and then, in no time at all, it was the big green tractor and you are the one doing the driving around the farm. From the time you were little (and still today), you've always kept us entertained with your originality and "wisdom". We know the future is very promising for you, after all, you ALWAYS have a well thought out plan to reach your goals! We are so proud of the young man you have become and the role model you are to our boys. As you walk into this new chapter of life, keep loving God and loving others and you will always be blessed!

We love you!

Uncle Nick, Aunt Allison, Trey & Barrett

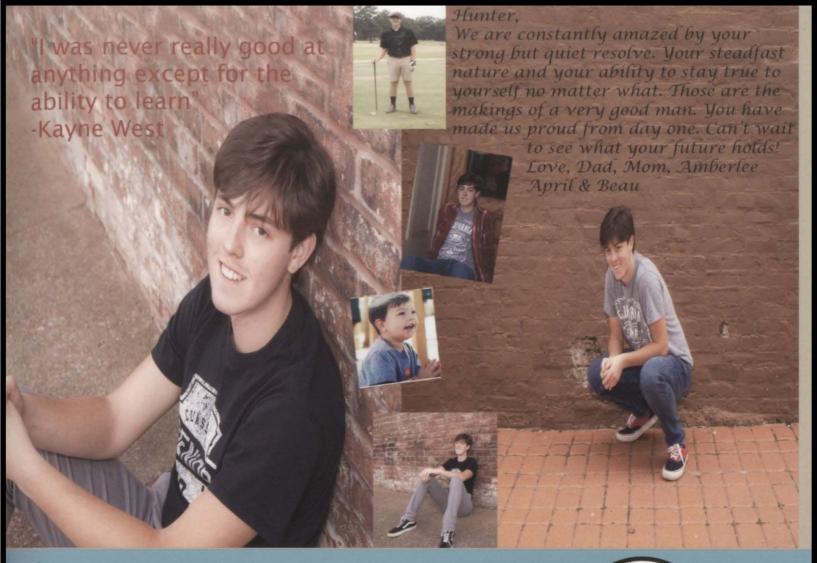

watch you grow. Your hard headed determination & big heart will help you do whatever you set your mind to. Always keep your faith in God & live your life to the fullest. We are so very proud of youl Katlin, Kota, Rhett

Ericka.

We cannot believe the time has come for you to graduate. You have grown up to be such a beautiful, smart, and strong young woman. You have always been a very amazing daughter and we have always cherished having you in our lives. A very warm hug and congratulations for graduating successfully. Words cannot express how proud we are of the woman you have become. As you continue your journey and approach new chapters in your life, stay true to who you are, what you believe in and be proud of the person you have become. Your family will be cheering for you each step of the way. We love you with all of our hearts and we will be here to support you wherever life takes you.

Love Always, Mom, Eddie, Daddy, Greg, & Isaac

Mom, Dad, Ericka, and Isaac

Braxton,

It's hard to believe that you are graduating from high school for it seems like it was just yesterday that you were born. Where has the time gone? Watching you grow into the fine young man that you have become, has truly been a blessing. Even though we are sad to see this chapter ending, we are just as excited to see a new chapter begin. Words cannot express the love and pride we have for you. Always believe in yourself, live life to the fullest, and never stop pursuing your dreams. I pray for God's blessings on your future. Always seek His will and all else will fall into place. Congratulations on this milestone in your life! We love you so much and know that we are always here for you.

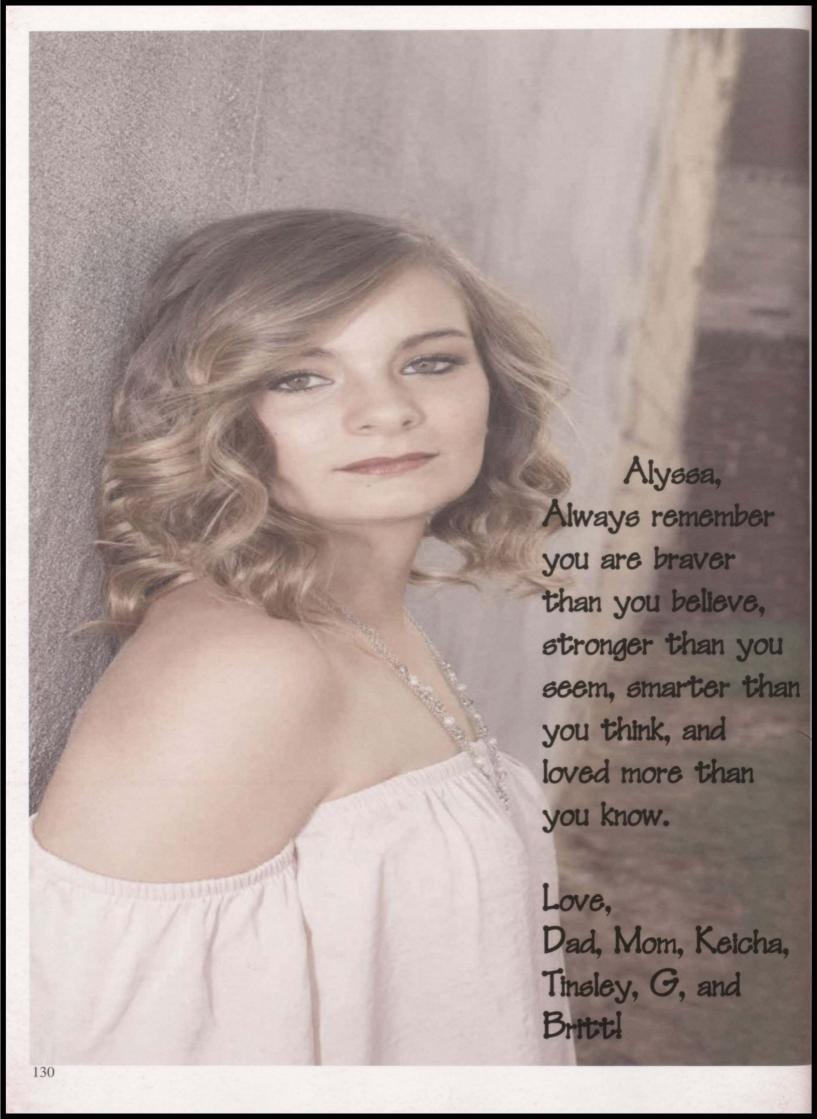

> Love always, Mom and Dad

Jayne-Shaye,

Dad and I were truly blessed when God chose us to be your parents. Your smile is contagious. Your faith is unstoppable. Your kindness is sought by many... When you were a little girl, your favorite song was "This Little Light of Mine." As you grew older, your favorite bible verse was Matthew 5:16: "Let your light shine before others so that they may see your good works and give glory to your father in heaven." You are a perfect example of this verse... You have grown into an amazing young lady that we are so very proud of...God has great plans for you, and life will bring you lots of blessings...

Remember... You will always be our little girl.

Much Love,

Dad & Mom

Jayne-Shaye,

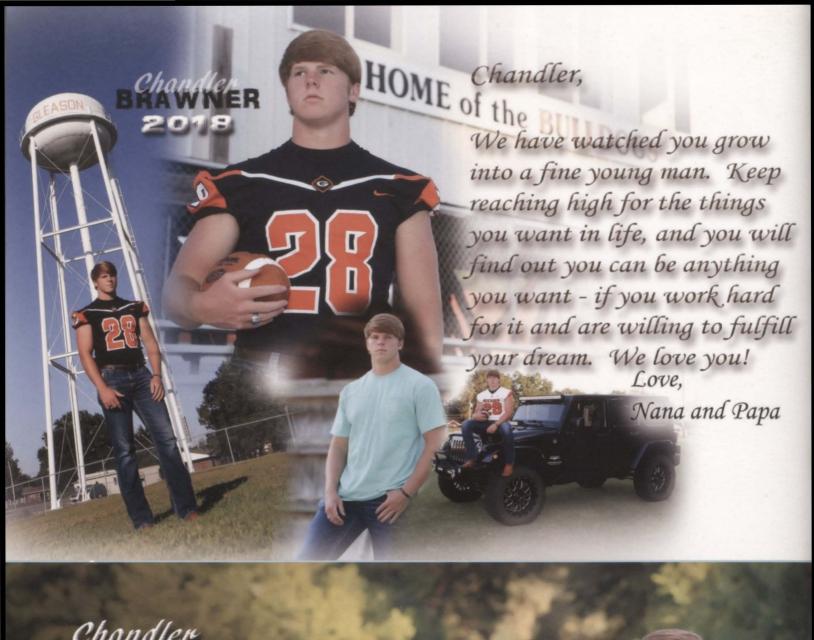

Our family would be lost without you. That's for sure! You make us whole! From cheer to homecoming queen to just being our J, you have always made us so proud! Your heart is pure as gold, and the sky is the limit for you! We love you always and forever.

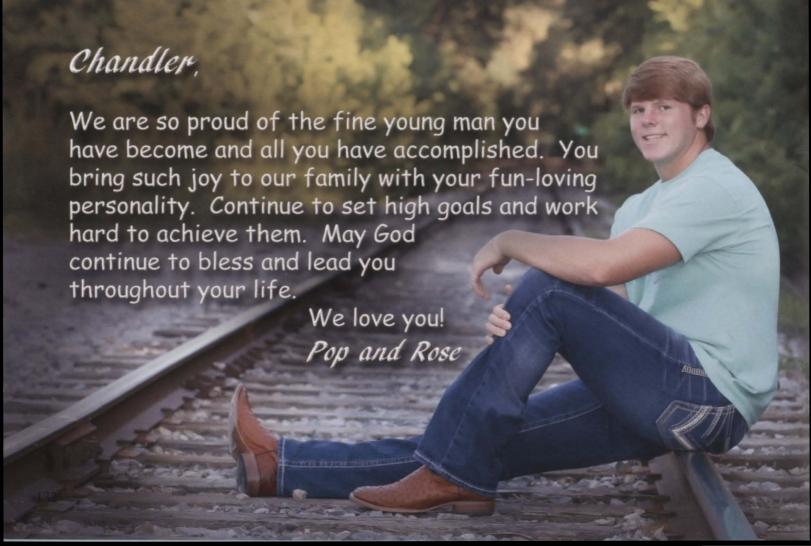

Love, Bubbie & Nicky

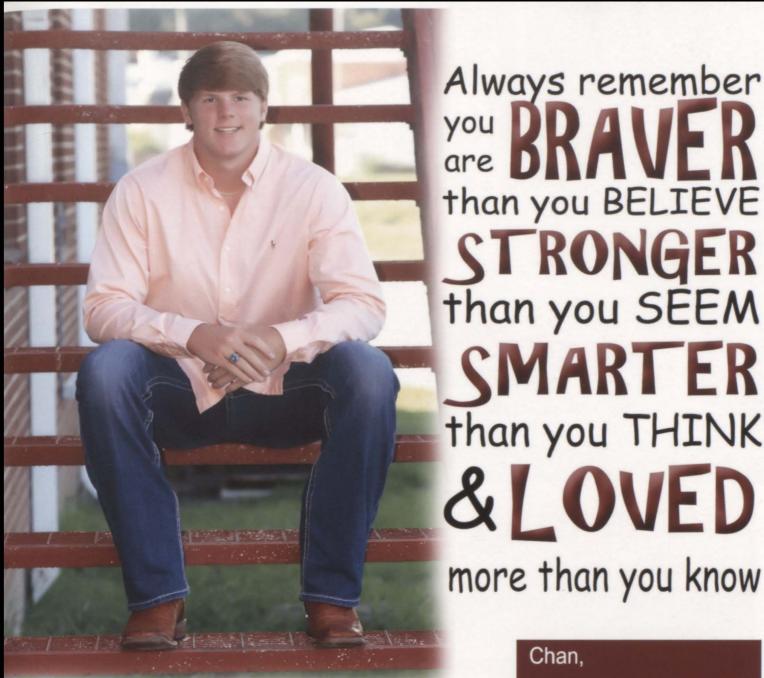

You are one of a kind, but that's what makes you who you are! You're our best friend and the best aunt we could ever ask for. From shopping trips, summer swims, and all of our other adventures, we love you so much!

Love Bailey & Bo Tyler

Chandler,

We are so thankful for the many great memories that you have made as a BULLDOG and we are incredibly proud of all your many accomplishments over the past thirteen years. You are an amazing son with so many wonderful qualities -- and for that we feel so blessed. Your determination to succeed will follow you throughout life and will help you to really make a difference one day. Continue to follow your dreams and always remember that God will direct your path if you lean on Him for guidance. We love you more than you will ever know and we can't wait to see what your future holds.

Love. Mom and Dad Chan,

I couldn't be more proud of you! You set such a great example for me. Thank you for always putting up with me and my crazy self! I just can't believe you are graduating. I'm going to miss you so very much! Keep working hard and stay smart bub!

I love you Chan

Chandler Dean Brawner

Chandler,

We are so proud of your accomplishments from Pre-K all the way through high school. We know that you will continue to accomplish anything you attempt in your life to come. You have always been a special grandson for more than one reason. Always keep a good head on your shoulders, and you will go far with a successful life.

We love you.

Maw Maw & Paw Paw Eddie

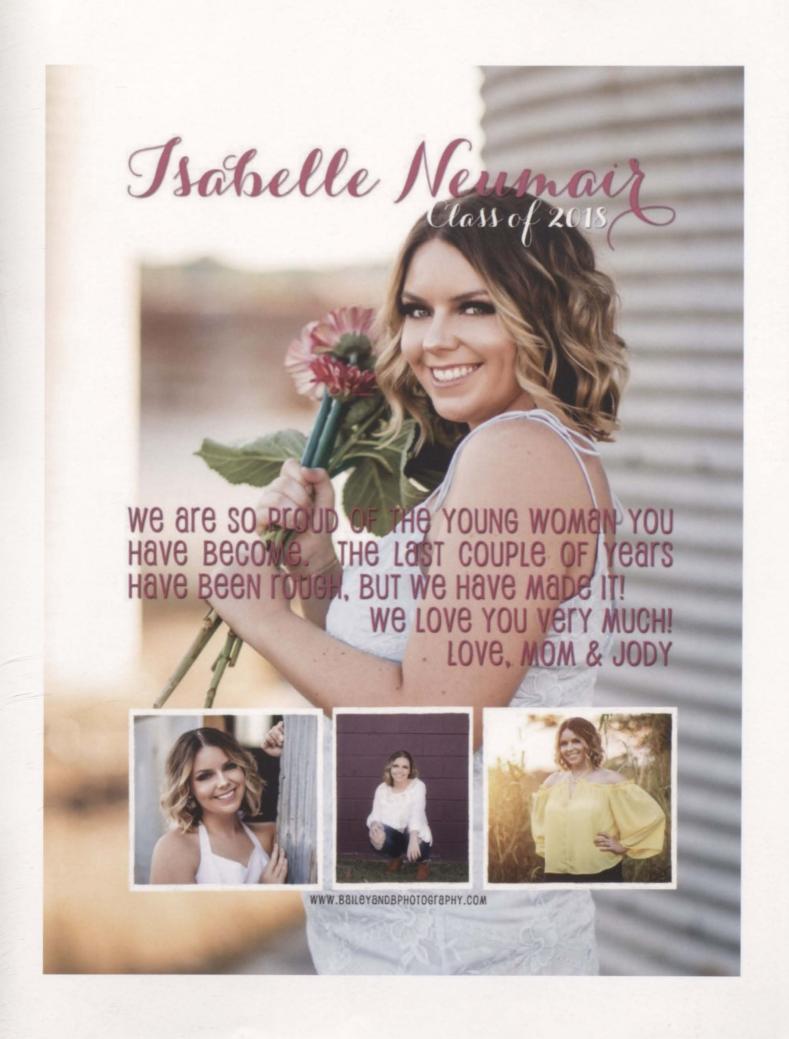

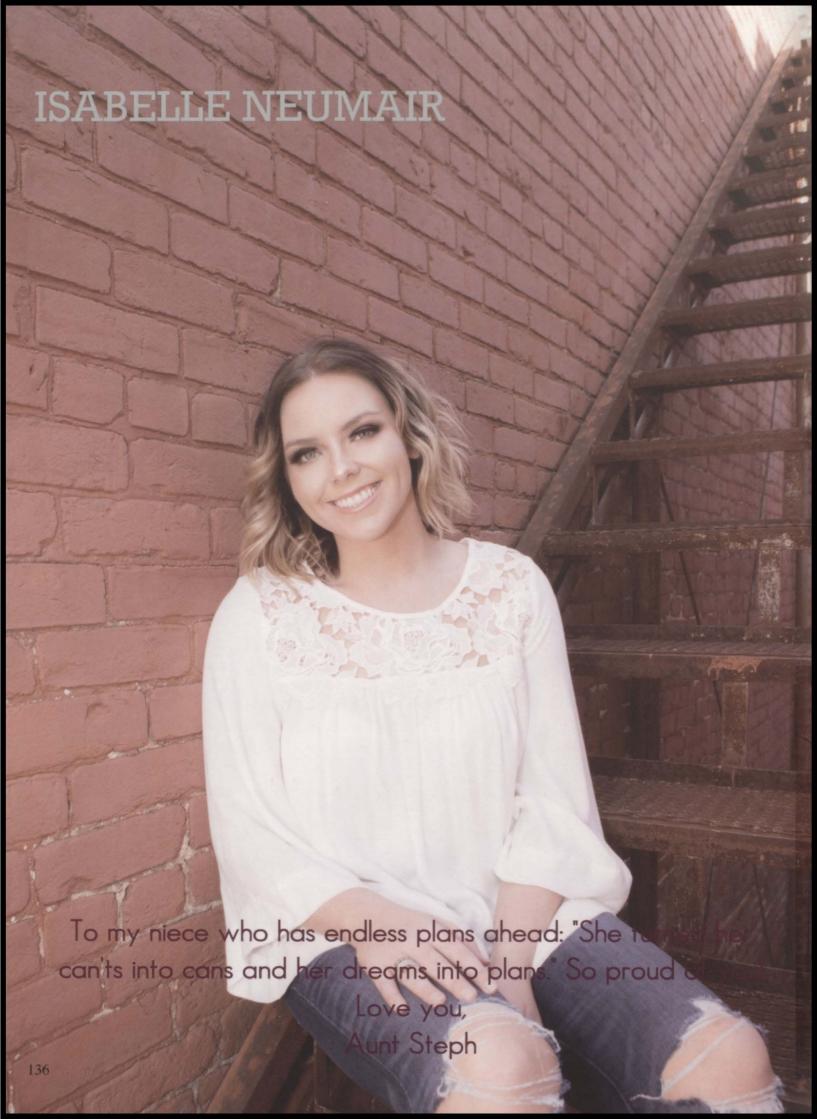

Your high school years have flown by! I do not even know where to begin! Please know that regardless what you do or where you go, your dad and I love you more than anything in the world and will always be here for you! Continue to work hard and never give up on your dreams! We cannot wait to see what the future holds for you! Love Always! Mom and Dad want you to know how proud I am of you. I have enjoyed watching you grow from the little boy that always loved playing ball and with his Thomas the Train to the young man you are today. You have always loved playing ball, and you continue to love it today. As you close this chapter in your life with high school graduation and begin the next chapter, I know that you will continue to make me proud. Don't ever give up, reach for the stars, continue to work hard in school, and you will do great in your life. I know your mom is watching you from heaven; she loves you and is proud of you, too.

AMBITATE OF

Jon,

I Love You Son! Love Always, Dad

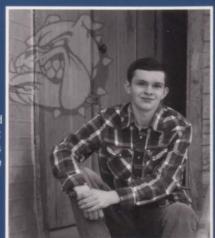

JON ROLAND

Jon,
I know that we may not always see eye to eye on everything, but I have enjoyed watching you grow into the young man you are today. I am proud of your accomplishments. I know that you will continue to work hard after high school and will do great in your career. Always believe in yourself.

Love you,

Momma

Thank you to our school personnel, students, parents, and community businesses for your continued support each year in assisting our yearbook staff in producing a "history book" for Gleason School.

Like any other community, the time we spend here is precious, and when it's time to move on, it's going to be difficult. That's where our school stands out. Long after graduating and moving on, we stay in contact with those friends and teachers who made an impact on us. When you are part of a community, the commYOUnity stays with you, no matter what!

Congratulations SENIORS.....Class of 2018!!!
